

Pylos Regional Archaeological Project Finding-Aid

Overview

Accession Code: SUV-PRAP

Principal Creators: Jack L. Davis and John Bennet

Title: Pylos Regional Archaeological Project (PRAP) Survey Records

Principal Dates: 1990-1997

Principal Language: English

Scope and Content: The Pylos Regional Archaeological Project (PRAP) was a multi-disciplinary, diachronic archaeological survey formally initiated in 1990 by Jack L. Davis. The primary aim of the project was to investigate the prehistoric and historic settlement and land use in western Messenia focused around the Bronze Age administrative center known as the Palace of Nestor. The project employed archaeological surface survey techniques while investigating the surrounding natural environment.

Series (and subseries) in the Pylos Regional Archaeological Project (PRAP) Survey Records include: Administrative Records and Correspondence (Series I containing permits and grants; correspondence; director's notebooks and guest notebooks; and survey accounts), Survey Records (Series II containing notebooks; forms; illustrative and photographic records; photographs and slides; unpublished reports/records; and other survey records), Studies and Publications (Series III containing manuscripts submitted for publication; Sandy Pylos), and Other Records (Series IV).

Access: The collection has been processed. Please contact the archivist for further information.

Citation: University of Cincinnati, Archives and Special Collections of the Department of Classics, Pylos Regional Archaeological Project (PRAP) Survey Records.

Notes (1): Standards applied in this finding-aid conform to DACS (2013, revised March 2015).
