Troy (Blegen) Excavation Records Finding-Aid

Overview

Accession Code: EXV-TROY (BLEGEN)
Principal Creators: Carl W. Blegen (1886-1971), Marion Rawson (1899-1980), and John L. Caskey (1908-1981)
Title: Troy (Blegen) Excavation Records
Principal Dates: 1931-1968
Principal Language: English
Scope and Content: Carl W. Blegen led the excavation of the site identified as Troy (Hisarlık) from 1932-1938 under the auspices of the University of Cincinnati. The concession was obtained in 1931 by William T. Semple from the Turkish Ministry of Culture, and among the team members was Wilhelm Dörpfeld, who had excavated at the site previously.

Series (and subseries) in the Troy (Blegen) Excavation Records include: Administrative Records and Correspondence (Series I containing permits and permit-related records; correspondence; director’s notebooks and guest notebooks; and excavation accounts), Excavation Records (Series II containing notebooks; finds records; illustrative and photographic records; unpublished reports/records; and other excavation records), Studies and Publications (Series III containing publication plans and assignments; original manuscripts submitted for publication; specialist studies; other records related to studies and publications), Other Records (Series IV), and Artifactual Materials (Series V containing samples).

Access: The collection has been partially process. Please contact the archivist for further information.

Citation: University of Cincinnati, Archives and Special Collections of the Department of Classics, Troy (Blegen) Excavation Records

Notes (1): For additional information about the Troy excavations, see also Blegen, Carl William under Collections – Personal Papers and Memorabilia. Also see the collection in the University of Cincinnati Archives and Rare Book Library regarding Carl W. Blegen. Finally, also see the collection in the Archives of the American School of Classical Studies in Athens.

Finding-Aid: This finding-aid was last edited in April 2019.

Series I – Administrative Records and Correspondence

Subseries I.1. Permits and Permit-Related Records
Box 01
Folder 01: Excavation permits and permit-related records for 1932-1939, all in Turkish (14 total items). 1939 record discusses the disposition of certain materials.

Subseries I.2. Correspondence
Folder 02: Correspondence 1931-1932 mainly between Carl W. Blegen, William T. Semple, and Wilhelm Dörpfeld. Other correspondents include D.G. Araboglou (of the Turkish American Shipping & Trading Co.), Francis H. ("Uncle") Bacon, H. Barthelemy, Aziz Bey, Harlan D. Conn, Gerhart Rodenwald, Louise T. Semple, G. Howland Shaw (of the American Embassy), Charles Vellay, Alan B. Wace, and J.P. Wagman (Manager of the American Express Company in Istanbul, Turkey). Includes William T. Semple’s cablegram to Carl W. Blegen that the concession has been granted, and two letters from H. Barthelemy about the export of pottery to the University of Cincinnati and the Cincinnati Museum of Art.

Folder 03: Correspondence 1933-1934 to and from Carl W. Blegen and various correspondents, who include Miodrag Grbic’, L.T. More (Dean at the University of Cincinnati), Vital Ojalvo, Gerhart Rodenwald, Godfrey Whittall, the Turkish Minister of Education [1934], and an unknown addressee.

Folder 04: Correspondence 1935-1936 to and from Carl W. Blegen and various correspondents, who include Remzi Oguz Arik, Aziz Bey, H.J. Boekelman, Wilhelm Dörpfeld, J.V.A. MacMurray (Ambassador to Turkey, includes a translation of a note from the Foreign Office of the Turkish Republic), William T. Semple, Jerome Sperling, the Turkish Minister of Education [1935 or 1936], and unknown addressees and addressees. Also includes presumably the beginning of a review of Palace of Minos Volume IV.

Folder 05: Correspondence 1937-1938 to and from Carl W. Blegen and various correspondents, who include Remzi Oguz Arik, Ha’mit Kosay, H.H. van der Osten, the Turkish Minister of Education [1935 or 1936], and an unknown addressee and addressers.

Folder 06: Correspondence 1939 and from Carl W. Blegen and John L. Caskey, other correspondents include Axel Boëthius, Leceister B. Holland, Godfrey Whittall and an unknown addresser writing in German. A letter dated 25 July, 1939, from J.M. Scammell to Theodore C. Blegen describes a conversation Scammell had with a Greek barber about a fanciful treasure hoard; Scammell asks that Theodore Blegen send this to his brother Carl.

Folder 07: Correspondence 1941-1947 to and from Carl W. Blegen and various correspondents, who include J.V.A. MacMurray, William T. Semple, Godfrey Whittall, Donald E. Webster, and unknown addressee.

Bradeen, Marjorie Braymer, Elizabeth Clark, Peter Dawney, Miriam Firestone, Priscilla Flood, Nils-Gustaf Gejvall, Dick Gilling, M. Sicouri-Roos, Dorothy Samachson, Rosalie Shapiro, Margaret R. Scherer, C. W. Stearn, Ingrid Strom, Suzanne Weiss, and an unnamed representative from the publisher Erven P. Noorhoff Ltd. as well as unknown addressers. The majority of the correspondence requests permission to publish photographs of Troy.

Folder 09: Correspondence 1932 from Godfrey Whittall to Carl W. Blegen and account sheet of shipment of clay samples to Cincinnati.

Folder 10: Correspondence 1949 from Harald A. Rehder to Cedric G. Boulter regarding shell analysis by the Smithsonian and from L. Brand[?] to Carl W. Blegen about the shells (includes a list of shells found and photographs).
Folder 11: Correspondence 1931-1932 regarding the Hodgson House erected at Troy. Primarily involving letters from William Stuart Thompson to Carl W. Blegen. Other correspondents include William T. Semple, Elizabeth P. Blegen, Henry S. Churchill, John H. Faunce, and Ralph B. Curren. Two letters from E. F. Hodgson Co. (one from Hodgson). Also includes three architectural drawings of Troy excavation house plan (two plans and one plan plus elevation), lists of equipment needed for the house (one with costs [unclear if in dollars or lira]), three blueprints (foundation plan, side section and porch screen plan, and roof plan), assembly directions from Hodgson, two small notes regarding building the house, and a 1933 Hodgson Houses catalogue with two inserts.

Folder 12: Undated correspondence to and from Carl W. Blegen by Mrs. Francis H. (“Uncle”) Bacon, Hamit Z. Kosay, an illustration of a Mycenaean chariot scene from George E. Mylonas, and an unknown addressee writing in French.

Box 02
Folder 01: Correspondence regarding publication of Troy volumes from 1948-1982. Also includes Chronological Record of Troy I publication, lists of copies sold and money received from Troy volumes as well as Angel’s Human Remains and Bennett’s Pylos Tablets, Memorandum of Agreement from Troy I, newspaper clipping about Troy I, advertisements for Troy volumes, and complimentary copy list. Originally in folder with attached note labeled “From Mr. Boulter’s Files, To be filed in excavations study”.

Folder 02: Correspondence regarding publication of Troy II from 1950-1953. Includes purchase orders, requisitions, invoices, and complimentary copy list.

Folder 03: Correspondence regarding publication of Troy III from 1952-1953, 1958. Includes purchase order, requisition, invoice, and complimentary copy list. Also included is a record of the illustrations for Vol. III with a note from Marion Rawson to Malcolm McGregor.

Folder 04: Correspondence regarding publication of Troy IV from 1956-1963. Includes reviews (in 1958 L’Antiquité Classique 23, fasc. 2; in 1959 American Journal of Archaeology vol. 63), listing in 1960 Bibliotheca Orientalis 17 (5/6), purchase orders, requisitions, adjusted royalty report, and complimentary copy lists. Also included is a list of Troy volumes sold and money returned to the Taft Fund as of January 31, 1960, and an undated “Memo on the Troy Publication”.

Folder 05: Correspondence regarding Troy Supplement 1 (The Human Remains) by Lawrence Angel. Includes letters of appreciation, financial correspondence, an invoice, a list of complimentary copies, a purchase order, a requisition, and correspondence about the manuscript, especially between Malcolm McGregor and Datus Smith.

Folder 06: Correspondence regarding Troy Supplement 2 (The Coins of the Troad) by Alfred Bellinger. Includes letters of appreciation, financial correspondence, an invoice, lists of complimentary copies for Troy: Figurines and this supplement, a review of the volume (in 1962 American Journal of Archaeology vol. 66), a purchase order, requisitions, advertisements, the forward to the volume written by Carl W. Blegen, and correspondence regarding publishing the volume (including the fire in the Princeton bindery that destroyed Troy volumes) especially between Alfred Bellinger and Carl W. Blegen, Cedric Boulter, and John Caskey.

Folder 07: Correspondence regarding Troy Supplement 3 (The Terracotta Figurines of the Hellenistic Period) by Dorothy Burr Thompson. Includes letters of appreciation, financial correspondence, an invoice, lists of complimentary copies, a purchase order, requisitions, advertisements, two mss of the forward to the volume written by Carl W. Blegen, and correspondence regarding promotion and publishing the volume (including the errors on the dust jacket) especially between Dorothy Burr Thompson and Cedric G. Boulter.

Folder 08: Correspondence (June 1979) between John. L. Caskey, George Rapp, Jr., and Kenneth Caster regarding Troy Supplementary Monograph 4.

Folder 09: List of soil samples from 18 March 1975.

Folder 10: Concordance of soil samples. [May date to April 1975 according to box in which this and analysis were found].

Folder 11: Analysis of soil sample locations with discussions from notebooks and illustrations of locations of 340 samples. [May date to April 1975 according to box in which this and concordance were found].

Folder 12: Addenda to Faunal Identifications of Troy Soil samples by David Reese, 15 March 1982.
