COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

As this issue is going to press, Nestor is celebrating its 39th birthday, with cake, flowers, and all. Yes, it was February 1957... when a "Mycenaean Bibliography," soon to be named Nestor, was first put together and circulated in 150 copies. It has been produced and circulated with a remarkable regularity ever since. Best wishes, then, for many more decades of Nestor. Can you imagine life without it?

Nestor as a database: The bibliographic contents of Nestor from 1957 to 1994 (ca. 30,000 entries) continue to be available via anonymous FTP from cica.cica.indiana.edu, path /pub/archaeology. The same materials are also available on diskettes for Macintosh and PCs from the current Nestor address, at $ 21.00 for U.S. addresses, $ 30.00 for overseas (or $ 4.00 and 6.50 per diskette, respectively). Remember that the bibliography is in structured ASCII files that you can easily import to a database program of your choice. More detailed instructions are provided at both the FTP site and on each diskette. The 1995 bibliography will be ready for distribution from the FTP site and on diskette in April '96. The cost of the diskette is $ 4.50 for U.S. addresses and $ 6.00 for overseas. Checks or money orders in all cases should be written to the University of Cincinnati and mailed to Nestor. If you have not paid your 1996 subscription dues for the monthly Nestor yet, and you wish to receive any diskettes, including the 1995 one, you may add the value of the diskettes to your subscription check, and indicate so in your order.

The remaining copies of the International Directory of Aegean Prehistorians (IDAP, 1995 edition) are now available from Nestor at $ 10.00 (for U.S. addresses) and $ 12.00 (overseas). They will be sold on a first come first served basis, so hurry! Checks should be made payable to the University of Cincinnati, and mailed to Nestor (see address in masthead). Once again, if you have not yet paid your 1996 Nestor subscription dues and you wish to receive IDAP, you may add the amount to your subscription check, and indicate so in your order.

Lectures and Conferences

We note two lectures at the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, scheduled for March 4, 1996: T.G. Palaima is speaking on "Animadversions on the earliest Greek religious text," and E. Hallager on "Excavations at Khania - Kydonia (Crete)."

The New York Aegean Bronze Age Colloquium is hosting Marisa Marthari on March 7, 1996. The topic of her lecture is "Skaros on Ios: The contribution of a settlement to a better understanding of the Early Cycladic culture."

Moudre et broyer: l'identification de l'outillage de mouture dans la préhistoire et l'antiquité, an international Round Table, organized by the Université Blaise-Pascal, CNRS, and the Université de Paris I, was held in Clermont-Ferrand, Nov. 30 - Dec. 2, 1995. Papers of interest to Nestor included:

S. de Beaune, "Origine du matériel de broyage au Paléolithique."

M. Miller, "The use of ground stones for the manufacture of ornaments."

M.-R. Belgiorno, "Diffusione ed uso delle mole cipriote del Bronzo Antico e Medio con particolare riguardo a quelle provenienti dalla necropoli di Pyrgos."

A. Moundrea-Agrafioti, "Akrotiri, Théra. Moudre et broyer dans l'espace construit d'une cité du début du Bronze égéen."

P. Neuville, "Aperçu sur le matériel de broyage de la Corse (Néolithique -Bronze Final)."

P. Anderson, F. Formenti, J. Juan-Tresseras, and H. Prokopiou, "Étude des matériaux transformés sur des outils de mouture: identification des résidues par analyse chimique et par observation optique."

J. Evans and F. McLaren, "Chemical taxonomy of early cereals."

F. Estug-Yaras, "Ethnographic pounders and grinders in a modern Central Anatolian village."

Exhibitions

"Neolithic Culture in Greece," an exhibition at the Museum of Cycladic Art, Athens, was inaugurated by H.E. the President of the Hellenic Republic Constantinos Stephanopoulos, on Feb. 23 1996. The exhibition is under the sponsorship of the Ionian Bank. The catalogue of the exhibition is available from the Museum store, Neophytou Douka 4, Kolonaki, Athens.

Announcements

The Institute for Mediterranean Studies announces the availability of a video report on the Troy Excavations 1993 and 1994, detailing work at the Troy Citadel, the Lower City, and at Kumtepe, spanning the period from the 5th mill. B.C. to Roman times. Copies of the video can be ordered from the Institute for Mediterranean Studies, 7086 East Aracoma Drive, Cincinnati, OH 45237, U.S.A. To order, send a check for $ 39.95 (VHS - American standard) or $ 44.95 (VHS - European standard) plus shipping and handling ($ 4.00 for U.S. addresses, $ 5.00 for Canada, $6.00 overseas; please add $1.00 for each additional video). While most contributors were Americanists, the common focus on "Material Symbols: Culture and Economy in Prehistory" was broad enough to concern all prehistorians. Abstracts can be obtained from John Robb, organizer of the conference, at the Center for Archaeological Investigation, Mailcode 4527, Southern Illinois Univ., Carbondale, IL 62901-4527 (also from <http://www.siu.edu/~cai/vs.htm>). The papers will be published.

New Journals

Arkheologicheskie Vesti / Archaeological News (ISBN 5-7341-0010-2) is a relatively new periodical, published in St. Petersburg by the Institute of the History of Material Culture, Russian Academy of Sciences. Each annual volume (ca. 250 pages) offers several sections: "New Discoveries and Studies" consists of relatively short articles, while longer essays appear in the section "Actual Problems of Archaeology." Subjects pertain mainly to the archaeology of Asia and Eastern Europe, but theoretical and historical contributions are also included. All articles are in Russian and are accompanied by extensive summaries in English. In addition, each volume contains book reviews, communications on "The East-West Cooperation," and, occasionally, a special section on a timely topic. For subscriptions write to the Institute of the History of Material Culture, Dvortzovaja Nab. 18, St. Petersburg, 191065 Russia. Two volumes of this journal arrived at the hands of the Nestor editor thanks to the effort of Prof. V. M. Masson; some of their contents are included in the present issue.

Also new is Arkeologjia, published biannually by the Albanian Archaeological Society. In the issue donated to Nestor by Lorenc Bejko, President of the Society, all essays (2500-3000 words) and notes appear in both Albanian and English. Book and article reviews are also included, as are short book notes and a section with announcements of conferences and news. Methodological and historical topics supplement those focusing on Albania and the Balkans. Subscriptions are handled by the Albanian Archaeological Society, Institute of Archaeology, Tirana, Albania; fax: (042) 32010.

Future Conferences

The symposium Material Issues in Art and Archaeology V (Material Research Society, Fall Meeting) will convene December 2-6, 1996, in Boston, Mass., U.S.A. Papers are invited for the occasion. Of particular interest will be contributions which explore the interface and overlap among traditional materials science, the history of technology, and the archaeological and conservation sciences or that investigate new methods and applications of material science in art and archaeology. Abstracts should be typed camera-ready on the standard MRS form and submitted by 1 June, 1996, to MIAA-V Symposium Abstracts, Materials Research Society, 9800 McKnight Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15237, USA.

A symposium on the Prehistory and History of Glass and Glassmaking Technology is scheduled for the 99th Annual Meeting of the American Ceramic Society, May 1997, Cincinnati, Ohio. (Precise date to be announced.) For more information contact Patrick McCray and W. David Kingery, fax: (520) 621-8117, or email: albatros@vms.ccit.arizona.edu.

The Midwest European Archaeological Diaspora (MEAD) will meet on Saturday October 19, 1996, at the University of Iowa, Iowa City. A call for papers will be sent at the beginning of Fall semester 1996. For more information contact Jim Enloe at (319) 335-0514, or Glenn Storey at (319) 335-2073; email jamesenloe@uiowa.edu or gstorey@blue.weeg.uiowa.edu

Past Lectures and Conferences

The 98th Annual Meeting of the American Ceramic Society in Indianapolis, April 14-17, 1996 included a symposium on the History and Prehistory of Ceramic Kilns, organized by Prudence M. Rice and W. David Kingery. Among the papers of interest to prehistorians we note "Inferring Firing Procedures from Sherds: Early Greek Kilns," by K.D. Vitelli.

The New York Aegean Bronze Age Colloquium hosted two lectures. Prof. Wolf-Dietrich Niemeier spoke on the "Excavation of the Minoan Colony at Miletus" (April 15, 1996), and Prof. Dr. Ingo Pini on "Metal Seals of the Aegean Bronze Age" (April 24, 1996).

We present here the full program of the Sixth International Aegean Conference, TEXNH: Craftsmen, Craftswomen and Craftsmanship in the Aegean Bronze Age (Philadelphia, April 18-21, 1996). The papers will be published in Aegaeum.

NESTOR

Bibliography of Aegean Prehistory and Related Areas

Published monthly, September to May, by the Department of Classics, University of Cincinnati
P.O. Box 0226, Cincinnati, Ohio 45221-0226, U.S.A.

Editor: Eric H. Cline Assistant Editors: Alexandra Lesk, Libby Percival, Aaron Wolpert

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

NESTOR would like to welcome Aaron Wolpert as a new staff member (Assistant Editor) and regrets to announce the departure of A.J. Lyons, who served ably as an Assistant Editor from September 1995 to September 1996.

We would like to pose the following questions to NESTOR readers:

- 1) The geographical region covered by NESTOR encompasses the Aegean and neighboring areas, including Greece, Italy, Sicily, the Balkans, the Cyclades, Anatolia, the Levant, and Egypt. Are you content with this range? Would you like to see the range increased? Decreased? Which areas would you add or subtract?
- 2) The chronological range currently covered by NESTOR runs from the Paleolithic to the end of the Bronze Age. Are you content with these limits? Would you like to see the range increased? Decreased? Which periods would you add or subtract? Would you be interested in including the Early Iron Age (Lefkandi, for example) within NESTOR's coverage? Should we include Homeric topics?
- 3) Should we include literature concerning epigraphical material in addition to the prehistoric Aegean scripts (Hittite archives or Ugaritic letters, for example)?

NESTOR would like to know what you think, and how we may best serve our readers. Please send responses to the above questions or any suggestions in general to NESTOR, Department of Classics, University of Cincinnati M.L. 0226, Cincinnati, Ohio 45221-0226, U.S.A., or e-mail us at nestor@ucbeh.san.uc.edu.

Electronic News and Notices

The following sites on the World Wide Web will be of immediate interest (note that the addresses must be typed in exactly as they appear here):

http://devlab.dartmouth.edu/history/bronze_age/ -- Jerry Rutter's Web version of his Aegean Bronze Age course at Dartmouth College is now much improved, with some 500 illustrations, 500 scanned images, and independently indexed text, bibliography, and image caption files.

<http://www-oi.uchicago.edu/OI/DEPT/RA/ABZU/ABZU.HTML> -- maintained by Charles Jones at the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago, ABZU is a guide to resources for the study of the ancient Near East available on the Internet, which will contain much of peripheral interest to Aegean prehistorians.

<http://argos.evansville.edu> -- Argos is a limited search engine of the Ancient and Medieval worlds maintained by the University of Evansville and will lead NESTOR readers to much of interest; simply type in the topic of concern and a list of relevant occurrences on the Web will be generated, with links which can be followed to those sites.

Electronic News and Notices

The following sites on the World Wide Web will be of immediate interest (note that the addresses must be typed exactly as they appear here):

<http://classics.lsa.umich.edu/PRAP.html> -- this is the Internet Edition of the Pylos Regional Archaeological Project. Browsers will be treated to a Site Gazetteer, numerous photos and maps of the study area, copies of the PRAP preliminary reports, and a variety of other items of interest.

<http://www.chass.utoronto.ca:8080/amphoras/tocs.html> -- maintained by Robert Kallet-Marx and Philippa Matheson at the University of Toronto, this site (home of the TOCS-IN Project) archives the tables of contents of more than 150 journals which will be of immediate and peripheral interest to NESTOR subscribers (including AJA, AA, BCH, CAJ, JFA, JMA, and OJA).

John Younger's "Caught in the Net" column, which has appeared in each issue of Biblical Archaeologist since Issue 58:3 (1995), is a recommended read for any NESTOR subscriber interested in the World Wide Web. Younger's columns are useful for both true novices and seasoned veterans of the Internet; topics covered to date have ranged from "How to Get Started" and "Searching the Net" to "Creating Web Pages" and "Student Internet Projects."

Announcements

The new INSTAP Study Center for Eastern Crete will open in the summer of 1997. It will have a library with a specialized collection including any publications dealing with Crete as well as a file of offprints. INSTAP invites all NESTOR readers to help build up this important research tool by sending copies of past and present offprints of their work to Professor Philip P. Betancourt, Department of Art History, Temple University, Philadelphia, PA 19122.

In conjunction with this opening, a tour designed to showcase the Study Center and many of the important archaeological sites in the area will be led by Al and Mary Leonard, with lectures by a number of guest speakers and archaeologists. For more information contact telephone (520) 621-1689, fax (520) 621-3678, or email aleonard@ccit.arizona.edu.

Communications

Metaxia Tsipopoulou and Erik Hallager submitted the following communication to NESTOR:

During the summer of 1996 Dr. Metaxia Tsipopoulou discovered part of a new hieroglyphic archive in the palatial building at Petras, Siteia in Eastern Crete. During detailed stratigraphic investigations in the area of the north façade, a Middle Minoan II deposit was discovered below a heavy layer of Late Minoan IA. This deposit revealed the north entrance to the MMII building, and into this entrance the remains from a hieroglyphic deposit had fallen from a room above. In 1996 less than half of the area into which the hieroglyphic documents had fallen could be excavated. The documents were fragile and have as yet only been very preliminarily studied, but we should like to communicate briefly the finds of the 1996 excavation:

Two complete and unpierced four-sided claybars; one was inscribed on all four sides, the other on three sides.

Nine more or less complete medallions; eight inscribed with a single sign group, one unfinished. Six of the medallions had on the reverse differing numbers of dots (probably representing 10's), suggesting a system of sign-groups on the obverse and numbers on the reverse.

One preserved and one fragmentary crescent with seal impressions; three other fragments possibly representing crescents were recovered.

Three different kinds of sealings and nodules with seal impressions, including two door/chest sealings, one of which carried a seal impression from a prism with a partly preserved hieroglyphic inscription; three two-hole hanging nodules with seal impressions from relatively large seals of which two depict quadrupeds; nine nodules of a type which had been pressed up against something and had internal stringmarks. The seal impressions on these nodules had a high percentage of pictorial motifs as compared to simple geometric designs, with depictions of various quadrupeds dominant.

A number of unfinished documents were also found, among them a nodule and a two-holed hanging nodule, both of which lacked seal impressions.

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

Invoices for 1997 subscription renewals are distributed to current NESTOR subscribers along with this issue (see the enclosed green flyer). We must remind our international subscribers that NESTOR raised its overseas rates on July 1st, 1996 to reflect increased postage costs. Current rates:

US Individuals	$7.50
International Individuals (surface mail)	$10.00
(air mail)	$16.00
US Institutions	$12.50
International Institutions	$18.50

The invoices also show unpaid dues from previous years. Unfortunately, we must delete from our mailing list subscribers who still owe 1996 payments. Help keep NESTOR viable; please pay promptly. Please include address changes on the invoice when you send your renewal payment.

Please find included in this issue the Volume 23 cover page and the 1996 index, to which we have added a list of review authors in addition to authors of books/articles and of books reviewed.

Correction: In the November 1996 issue of NESTOR, entry $960897 should read as follows:

Mueller, W, ed. 1995. Sceaux minoens et myceniens, Corpus der Minoischen und Mykenischen Siegel, Beiheft 5, Berlin: Gebr. Mann.

Friedrich Matz was erroneously listed as the author of the volume, when in fact he founded the series of which this volume is a part. Our apologies for the error.
