COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

We are pleased to announce several changes in NESTOR, taking effect immediately with this first issue of calendar year 1997.

First, as part of NESTOR's new Home Page on the Web (see below under Electronic News and Notices), the bibliography contained in NESTOR issues published from 1957-1995 can now be found in a searchable database maintained by the NESTOR editors. This bibliographical database will be updated at the end of each calendar year, but will always be at least a year behind the NESTOR monthly issues which are available via subscription in hard copy and on diskette (a blatant attempt to make NESTOR more useful, while still retaining our faithful subscribers). Those using this online database are requested to notify the NESTOR editors of any errors, typographical or otherwise, which are noted in the entries generated during searches; we shall then emend the database entry itself and in this way shall be able to correct those errors which appeared in previous issues of NESTOR from 1957-1995.

Second, in response to the survey published in the October issue of NESTOR, beginning with this issue we have expanded NESTOR's chronological coverage to include the Early Iron Age (e.g. Lefkandi) and archaeologica homerica topics, while retaining NESTOR's traditional geographical coverage of the Aegean and adjacent areas. We would like to thank the many NESTOR subscribers who responded to our survey.

Third, again as a response to reader requests, NESTOR will now use a Greek font for entries in modern Greek, rather than transliterating them as previously. However, this will be true only for the printed copy sent out each month to NESTOR subscribers. By necessity, we will still employ the transcription system on the ASCII diskettes and in the searchable bibliographical database on the Web.

Fourth, with the permission of John F. Cherry and Jack L. Davis, NESTOR will be responsible from now on for maintaining and updating the International Directory of Aegean Prehistorians. A searchable version of the Directory will soon be posted on the Web at NESTOR's Home Page (see below). Scholars wishing to update or change information listed in this directory should write or email the NESTOR editors directly. Hard copies of the second edition (1995) of the directory, edited by Cherry and Davis, are still available from the Department of Classics at the University of Cincinnati, M. L. 0226, Cincinnati, OH 45219 ($10 for US addresses, $12 overseas; make checks payable to NESTOR); a new edition will not be issued in printed copy until enough changes have been made to warrant such action.

Electronic News and Notices

<http://ucaswww.mcm.uc.edu/classics/nesstor/nesstor.html>: we proudly announce the creation of NESTOR's new Home Page, with links to the following sites:

- 1) the searchable NESTOR bibliographical database from 1957-1995 (both simple and detailed searches available, as well as a Help Page);
- 2) a brief publication history of NESTOR (1957-1997) and a description of the geographical and chronological parameters covered by NESTOR's bibliography;
- 3) subscription information for current printed copies and diskettes;
- 4) the searchable International Directory of Aegean Prehistorians (currently under construction);
- 5) future plans for the site.

Please address any comments, questions, or problems to the NESTOR editors at the above addresses.

NB: Please note that if you wish to go directly to the NESTOR searchable bibliographical database, you may do so by typing <http://stream.blg.uc.edu/nesstor/nsearch.html>. This will be of particular use if you have trouble accessing the NESTOR Home Page, which may happen occasionally on weekends due to circumstances beyond our control. The database itself should be accessible at all times; please contact us immediately if it is not.

From the Editors

We are experiencing significant delays in the delivery of NESTOR issues to our U. S. subscribers. It seems that bulk mail does not have priority with the U. S. Postal Service, and thus our issues are taking three weeks or more to reach their destinations, even within the continental U. S. We are endeavoring to remedy this problem, but in the meantime we ask our subscribers to bear with us and to alert us of missing issues.

Electronic News and Notices

The following sites on the World Wide Web will be of immediate interest to NESTOR subscribers (note that the addresses must be typed exactly as they appear here):

<http://scholar.cc.emory.edu/scripts/ASOR/ASOR-MENU.html> -- home page for the American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR). Contains much of peripheral interest to Aegean prehistorians, including information on the annual ASOR meeting (Napa Valley, CA in November 1997), new publications, excavations and other projects, fellowships and grants, the ASOR Newsletter, and the online Membership Directory.

<http://csaws.brynmawr.edu:443/aia.html> -- home page for the Archaeological Institute of America (AIA). Also contains much information of interest to Aegean prehistorians, similar to the above ASOR page, but for the Aegean and Classical worlds.

<http://www.umich.edu/~classics/archives.html> -- maintained by Sebastian Heath and John Muccigrosso, this is a searchable archive of e-mail lists relevant to the study of the ancient Mediterranean and neighboring areas, including Aegeanet, Ancien-1, GreekArch, Romarch, and Classics. To search the Archives directly, type <http://www.umich.edu/~classics/archives/swish.html>.

COMMUNICATIONS

From the editors

With this issue, we bring the academic year 1997 to a close and wish all of our subscribers a happy and productive summer. We will resume publication with the September issue; please remember that we are happy to print brief summaries of excavation news and other information of interest to our readers.

Electronic News and Notices

The following sites on the World Wide Web will be of immediate interest (note that the addresses must be entered exactly as they appear here):

<http://www.culture.gr> -- provided by the Hellenic Ministry of Culture, this is an excellent site where one can search, in either English or Greek, for specific museums, archaeological sites, monuments, and other topics.

<http://www.city.net/countries/greece> -- contains current information such as maps, weather, news, upcoming cultural events, etc.; extremely useful, particularly for those who are heading to the Aegean this summer.

<http://scholar.cc.emory.edu/scripts/ASOR/HittiteHP.html> -- the Hittite Home Page, meticulously maintained by Billie Jean Collins. The site contains many resources specifically relevant to Hittite studies but also of interest to NESTOR readers, including the Newsletter for Anatolian Studies, a bibliography of ancient Anatolia for the years 1985-1994, a Hittite king list, the International Directory of Hittitologists and Anatolianists, as well as a listing of pertinent excavations, institutes, museums and other topics.

Upcoming Lectures and Conferences

The Association for Ancient Greek Technology Studies (EMAET) and the Technology Museum of Thessaloniki (TMΘ) have organized a conference scheduled for September 4-7, 1997 at the Technology Museum. Ancient Greek Technology will include sessions dealing with all aspects of technology and society. For more information please contact Mrs. Vasiliki Stagoni, TMΘ, at The Technology Museum of Thessaloniki, Ancient Greek Technology Conference, P.O. Box 10977, 541 10 Thessaloniki, Greece; telephone (+30 31) 799773 or 795150, fax (+30 31) 796816.

Ankara University, Hacettepe University, the German Archaeological Institute at Istanbul, and the Municipality of Urla are sponsoring The Aegean in the Neolithic, Chalcolithic and Early Bronze Age, to be held October 13-19, 1997 in Urla (west of Izmir). The organizers have planned visits to Liman Tepe (prehistoric Klazomenae), Baklatepe, Panaztepe, Troy, Miletus, and Izmir Archaeological Museum during the symposium period. Contact Professor Dr. Hayat Erkanal, Urla Belediyesi Basın Bürosu, URLA-IZMIR, TURKEY.

The fourth Women in Archaeology Conference is scheduled for July 3-6, 1997 in Cairns, Australia, with a focus upon the contribution of women to the archaeological record and archaeological research--a review of progress up to the present as well as discussion of future plans. For more information please contact Jillian Comber, Department of Environment, PO Box 2066, Cairns QLD 4870, AUSTRALIA; telephone (+ 61) 70-523069, fax (+ 61) 70-523080; email jillian.comber@env.qld.gov.au.

The 1996 NESTOR bibliography has been added to the searchable online database, which now covers publications from the years 1954-1996. If you haven't done so already, please check out our Web site: <http://ucaswww.mcm.uc.edu/classics/nestor/nestor.html> (also accessible from the newly refurbished University of Cincinnati Department of Classics home page). We would also welcome your additions or updates to the online edition of the International Directory of Aegean Prehistorians, which is available through our Web page.

We would like to take the opportunity to wish all NESTOR subscribers a happy holiday season and to thank everyone for their continued support of this venerable publication. Please take the time to contact us by mail or email (nestor@ucbeh.san.uc.edu) with any suggestions concerning the printed or electronic versions of NESTOR – we welcome any ideas which might improve the quality and utility of the bibliography. (You might find it convenient to append a note to your subscription renewal, which is enclosed here.)

Announcements

NESTOR passes along the following from Cheryl Floyd, U.S. Academic Director, INSTAP-SCES:

In the summer of 1997 a new Study Center, the INSTAP Study Center for East Crete (INSTAP-SCEC), opened in Pacheia Ammos, Crete. This American research facility is dedicated to the advancement of Cretan studies from all periods of history, but places special emphasis on Aegean prehistory and archaeology.

For the 1997 summer season, the Center acted as the operating headquarters for six American and Greek-American Archaeological Projects, including the excavations and surveys at Gournia, Mochlos, Kavousi, Chrysokamino, Vrokastro and Halasmenos. The Center is also open for use by individual members, of any nationality, ranging from established scholars to university and college students.

INSTAP-SCEC is open year round and offers numerous facilities and services to its members. Facilities included a library, a photographic studio and dark room, a computer laboratory, a conservation laboratory, and a drafting room. Services offered included: email accounts for members, usage of filed equipment, and the services of professional photographers and conservators. For more information on the Center (including general information, application information, fees, etc.), please contact: Director, INSTAP Study Center for East Crete, Pacheia Ammos, Ierapetras 72200, Crete, Greece; telephone +3 0842 93027; FAX +3 0842 93017; email instapec@ier.forthnet.gr; or U.S. Coordinator, INSTAP-SCEC Office, MASCA, University Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, 33rd and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia, PA 19104-6324, USA; telephone (215) 573-4146; FAX (609) 881-4093; email crfloyd@masca.museum.upenn.edu.
