From the Editors

The editors of NESTOR would like to wish everyone a Happy 1998. To begin the new year, we are adding two new features to NESTOR: an Addenda section and a Dissertations in Progress section. The former will include publications overlooked in previous issues of NESTOR. This section will be limited to approximately two pages or less per issue, and the publications listed here will be added to the Web site subsequently. To facilitate this process, we ask that NESTOR subscribers send us notification of previous publications which have not been listed in previous issues of NESTOR. In order to verify that the item(s) are actually missing, please double-check the NESTOR database (<http://ucaswww.mcm.uc.edu/classics/nesstor/nesstor.html>) as well as the paper issues of the past year for items published in 1997. For overlooked items, please send us photocopies of the title page(s) on which all publication information appears (including publisher, place of publication, date of publication, and series title with volume number, if applicable) as well as the table of contents from the book/journal. In addition, please photocopy the first and last pages of journal articles or contributions to collections.

For the Dissertations in Progress section, we ask that readers send us notification of appropriate dissertations in progress. Please send (via post or e-mail) the working title of the dissertation and the university/program for which it is being written. We also ask for notification of dissertations which have been completed. Please send a photocopy of the title page and the UMI number if it is available. All completed dissertations will be listed in the Bibliography section below.

Electronic News and Notices

The following sites on the World Wide Web will be of immediate interest (note that the addresses must be typed exactly as they appear):

<http://www.ulg.ac.be/archgrec> - information from Robert Laffineur concerning the 7th International Aegean Conference in Liège next April. The title is POLEMOS: Le contexte guerrier en Egée à l'âge du Bronze/Warfare in the Aegean Bronze Age (please see the list of papers in the Upcoming Lectures and Conferences section below).

Past Lectures and Conferences

Yves Duhoux organized a half-day session on December 8, 1997 entitled Les Grecs, des Mycéniens à Homère. The two lectures presented were: "Comment déchiffrer une écriture ancienne: L'exemple du linéaire B" and "Le grec avant l'alphabet: L'écriture linéaire B." The session also included experimental workshops which included the producing of clay tablets and inscribing them in Linear B and writing and printing Linear B on computers.

“Sexuality and Power, Aegean and Greek Goddesses in a Near Eastern Perspective” was the title of a lecture given by Nanno Marinatos at the University of Toronto as the annual J. Walter Graham Memorial Lecture on January 14, 1998.

Among the many contributions to the December 16-18, 1997 meeting of the Theoretical Archaeology Group (TAG 97) held at the School of Conservation Sciences, Bournemouth University, we highlight those referring specifically to the Aegean: S. Burke, “Contested Space: A Discussion of Gendered Household Division in Ancient Greece,” S. Souvatsi, “Identifying Households in Neolithic Greece: Conceptions and Misconceptions,” K. Skortopoulou, “Craftsmen and Craftswomen? Everyday Life and Stone Tool Production in Neolithic Greece,” B. Bruner, “Dynamics of Making, Flourishing and Disappearance of the Vinca Culture Settlements - Causes and Effects,” and N. Theodessiev, “Religious Aspects of Cremation Burials in Ancient Thrace.”

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors would like to thank those subscribers who renewed their subscription to the monthly paper edition of NESTOR. The financial support of our annual subscribers not only allows NESTOR to remain a viable publication, but it also allows us to offer and maintain free Internet access to our bibliographic database (<http://ucaswww.mcm.uc.edu/classics/nesstor/nesstor.html>). While there has been an increase in the number of our international subscribers over the past two years, there has been a drop in the number of our annual subscribers from North America. The current bargain subscription rate of US $7.50 for North America will dramatically increase if we can not maintain enough subscribers to send NESTOR by Bulk Mail. We ask, therefore, that our current subscribers actively urge other colleagues and students who are interested in Mediterranean prehistory to subscribe to NESTOR. We would also like to point out that the maintenance of our Internet database is contingent upon the continuing production of the paper edition of NESTOR. Moreover, many current subscribers do not yet have or want Internet access and rely on the paper edition of NESTOR for bibliographic references.

The editors wish to correct two items concerning the University of Birmingham conference mentioned in the previous issue of NESTOR. The conference will take place in January, 2000 and K. A. Wardle's email address is K.A.Wardle@bham.ac.uk. We apologize for these errors.

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors would like to announce the unveiling of the Addenda section which may be found following the Dissertations in Progress section below. As the primary objective of the Addenda section is the improvement of the on-line database as a searchable resource, we intend to avoid overloading the paper version of NESTOR with large numbers of old articles. While we will enter all addenda into the database and then make them available on diskette, only "stray" articles and books not part of a series of omissions will be included in the paper edition. However, we will alert readers of impending additions to the database. This month, look for the contents of Hydra (1985-1991) and the Temple University Aegean Symposium 9 (1993). We would like to thank those individuals who have submitted items for this section and the Dissertations in Progress section.

The 1997 NESTOR bibliography is now available on diskette (as structured ASCII files) for Macintosh and IBM-PC. Subscribers may request diskettes from the above address by sending $4.00 (if you have a U.S. address) or $6.50 (for international addresses), payable to the University of Cincinnati; please specify Macintosh or IBM-PC version.

Finally, the editors would like to notify readers of NESTOR's new email address: NESTOR@CLASSICS.UC.EDU.

Electronic News and Notices

The following sites on the World Wide Web will be of immediate interest (note that the addresses must be entered exactly as they appear here):

<http://www.uni-tuebingen.de/uni/afj/troia/> -- Home page for Troia und die Troas - Archäologie einer Landschaft: Die neuen Ausgrabungen in Troia, Ein internationales und interdisziplinäres Projekt.

<http://www.sun.rhbnc.ac.uk/Classics/NJL/films.html> -- a Web page of Ancient Greece in the cinema. It includes sections on pre-Homeric myth, Homer and Troy, films concerning Greek historical figures, such as Alexander the Great and Cleopatra, and films of Greek drama.

<http://www.sun.rhbnc.ac.uk/Classics/NJL/novels.html> -- a Web page of Ancient Greece in English fiction. It includes sections on the Bronze Age and "myth/historical" topics such as the Trojan War, Heracles and Jason, Odysseus, etc.

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors of NESTOR would like to welcome subscribers back from their summer endeavors and wish them well for the coming year. Subscribers will note the size of this issue, and this is due in part to the efforts of Elmar Christmann to whom we are most grateful for sending a substantial number of offprints of publications which were otherwise unavailable.

Due to increased production costs, the subscription rates for Volume 26 (1999) of NESTOR have been increased. The new rates are as follows:

U.S. Individuals	$10.00
International Individuals (surface)	$12.00
International Individuals (air)	$16.00
U.S. Institutions	$14.00
International Institutions	$20.00

Subscribers who prepaid through 1999 paid the previous rates for Volume 26, and they will not pay the new rates until Volume 27 (2000). The editors wish to remind subscribers that continued support of the online searchable database of NESTOR depends on subscriber support of the paper copy.

Obituaries

The editors of NESTOR are saddened to record the deaths of Vronwy Hankey on May 11, 1998, and Cressida Ridley on June 10, 1998. Obituaries have appeared in British newspapers as follows:

Vronwy Hankey: The Guardian (July 13, Gerald Cadogan); The Independent (June 23, Peter Warren); The Times (June 15, unsigned).

Cressida Ridley: The Daily Telegraph (June 18, unsigned); The Guardian (June 25, Gerald Cadogan); The Independent (June 19, Kenneth Wardle); The Times (June 18, unsigned).

At the request of the families, donations may be made in memory of either Vronwy Hankey or Cressida Ridley, or both, to the British School at Athens, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU.

The British School is establishing the Vronwy Hankey Memorial Fund in Aegean Studies to assist students and scholars in the study of the archaeology, history, and culture of the Aegean and the Near East.

For Cressida Ridley, the family invites donations to The Council for the Preservation of Rural England, The Greek Animal Welfare Fund, and/or The Wiltshire Community Trust. The British School has agreed to forward donations to any of these organizations.

From the Editors

The editors of NESTOR would like to inform subscribers that the subscription invoices are being mailed separately this year and are due by January. As noted in the September issue, the slight price increase was necessary due in part to rising postal costs, which affects bulk mail rates in particular. We would urge everyone to renew subscriptions promptly.

Announcements

Applications and complete guidelines for 1999 funding are now available from the Institute for Aegean Prehistory. Projects relevant to the history of the Aegean world from the Paleolithic to the first Olympiad are eligible for funding. Projects outside the Aegean must have a direct relationship to Aegean prehistory in order to be considered for funding. INSTAP does not provide funds to support students obtaining degrees. In addition, Excavation Directors only may also apply for funds for technical archaeological services for publication preparation. Projects which are finished with excavation and are preparing material for publication are eligible. INSTAP also hopes to have available a group of specialists to supplement those already assembled by a Project Director or to provide a complete publication team should a Director wish. Please contact INSTAP if you wish to explore this option. Completed applications for 1999 funding must be received no later than December 1, 1998. Request forms from: Adelaide Lewis, Director of Grant Programs, Institute for Aegean Prehistory, 1270 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, U.S.A.; e-mail: all@styx.ios.com (Please supply your regular postal address.)

From the Editors

The Editors of NESTOR are saddened to record the death of John Chadwick on November 24, 1998. An obituary appeared in The Times, which can be found at the following Web Site: <http://www.the-times.co.uk/news/pages/tim/98/12/02/timobiobi03004.html?1229707>. We dedicate this volume to him and to the memories of Vronwy Hankey and Cressida Ridley who passed away in May and June respectively.

Electronic News and Notices

The following sites on the World Wide Web will be of immediate interest (note that the addresses must be entered exactly as they appear here):

<http://oz.uc.edu/~clinee/CLINEDB.htm> – The C.L.I.N.E. Database (Corpus of Late Bronze Age Imports from the Near East and Egypt), maintained by Eric H. Cline. This Website is a searchable database of all worked objects imported from Egypt, Anatolia, Cyprus, Syria-Palestine, and Mesopotamia found in Late Bronze Age contexts within the Aegean area, as contained within Catalogue II of Sailing the Wine-Dark Sea (Oxford 1994).

<http://www.sscnet.ucla.edu/ioa/afs/testpit.html> – Archaeological Fieldwork Opportunities Website, hosted by the Institute of Archaeology at UCLA. Very useful site which lists many ongoing field projects around the world.

<http://kv5.com/> – The Theban Mapping Project Website, maintained by Dr. Kent R. Weeks. A wonderful site which contains information about KV 5 (the tomb of the sons of Ramesses II), the Theban Mapping Project, the Valley of the Kings, and Egyptology in general.
