COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors of Nestor congratulate Peter Ian Kuniholm for receipt of the Pomerance Award for Scientific Contributions to Archaeology and Cyprian Broodbank for receipt of the James R. Wiseman Book Award for An Island Archaeology of the Early Cyclades (§010091) from the Archaeological Institute of America. Further information on each award is available from the Awards section of the AIA website at <http://www.archaeological.org>.

Calls for Papers

On 1 March 2003 new section proposals are due for the American Schools of Oriental Research Annual Meetings (ASOR 2003), to be held in Atlanta, Georgia from 19-22 November 2003. Individuals interested in organizing new academic sections are encouraged first to contact the Chair of the Program Committee: Eric H. Cline, Dept. of Classics and Semitics, George Washington University, 345 Phillips Hall, 801 22nd St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20052; telephone: (202) 994-0316; fax: 202 994-2156; e-mail: ehcline@gwu.edu, and should obtain a Section Chair Packet from the Annual Meeting Program, ASOR at Boston University, 656 Beacon Street, 5th floor, Boston, MA 02215-2010; e-mail: asor@bu.edu. On 1 April 2003 Participation/Abstract Forms for individual submissions are due to the chair of the section most appropriate to the research, as well as preregistration payment and Preregistration Forms to the ASOR Boston office; individual presentations which do not fit into established sections or new sections are also invited, and should be directed to Susan L. Cohen, Dept. of History and Philosophy, Montana State University, Bozeman, MT 59717; telephone: (406) 994-5202; e-mail: scohen@montana.edu. Submissions must be made by e-mail. On 1 May 2003 submissions by section chairs of Program Summaries, Participation/Abstract Forms, Preregistration Forms, Session Request Forms and a statement affirming preregistration of all participants is due to the Annual Meeting Program, at the ASOR Boston office. On 16 September 2003 applications for Lindstrom Student Service Scholarships and Dorot Annual Meeting Travel Scholarships are due. Further information, including rules for participation, sections planned for ASOR 2003, and the format of and procedure for submitting abstracts, as well as all necessary forms are available at <http://www.asor.org>.

On 20 March 2003 abstracts for presentations are due for the 105th Annual Meeting of the Archaeological Institute of America (AIA 2004), to be held in San Francisco, California from 2-5 January 2004. Proposals are invited for presentations in the forms of individual papers and field reports (10, 15, or 20 minutes), poster presentations (4 x 8 foot space for display of materials), and lunchtime roundtable discussions, as well as organized sessions including colloquia (three to six papers of 10, 15, or 20 minutes each) and workshops (one and one-half to three hours consisting of a group of brief, informal oral presentations/demonstrations concerning a common topic or theme combined with discussion or further demonstration.) Submissions must be made by means of online submission forms available from the AIA website at <http://www.archaeological.org>; further information, including detailed guidelines of information required for submissions, forms appropriate to each type of presentation, applications for travel funds, and membership requirements, are available at the same address. Abstracts (250 words maximum for individual papers or roundtable discussions, 250-400 words for colloquia and workshops) will no longer be published in the American Journal of Archaeology. A paper copy of the abstract identical to that submitted online must be mailed or faxed to the Boston office for titles or abstracts containing Greek characters, postmarked on or before the 20 March 2003 deadline.

On 15 April 2003 abstracts of papers and posters by postgraduate researchers are due for the Liverpool Interdisciplinary Symposium in Antiquity (LISA 2003). Temple, Home and Tomb: Architecture and the Individual, to be held on 17 May 2003 at The University of Liverpool, School of Archaeology, Classics and Oriental Studies. Abstracts (200 words maximum) are invited for papers (20 minutes) or posters on any aspect of Architecture and the Individual. Further information is available from the Coordinator, Jonathan Petch, LISA 2003, School of Archaeology, Classics and Oriental Studies, The University of Liverpool, William Hartley Building, Liverpool, L69 3GS; e-mail: j.petch@liv.ac.uk.

On 30 April 2003 abstract and proposal submissions are due for the conference Feminism & Classics IV: Gender and Diversity in Place, to be held from 27-30 May 2004 at the University of Arizona in Tucson. This conference series explores the interconnections between research on the ancient Mediterranean world and the study of women and gender, with special emphasis at this conference on ethnicity, gender, and sexuality in the ancient world. Submissions are invited from a wide range of perspectives, including archaeology, art history, cultural, political, and social history, linguistics, literary criticism, religious studies, and papyrology; experimental sessions that offer opportunities for developing theories, methods, and tools or for building scholarly and pedagogical networks are especially welcome. Panel and workshop proposals (90 minutes maximum) should be a summary (500 words maximum) of the general theme of the panel or workshop and a brief description (250 words each) of the individual presentations; paper proposals (20 minutes) should be a summary (500 words maximum - one single-spaced page) of the presentation. Proposals should be sent by e-mail to Holly Cohen at holly@ironhorsemotorcycles.com.

Future Lectures and Conferences

The Cambridge Philological Society has announced their spring program; all meetings begin at 4:30, following tea at 4:00. Further information about meetings is available from Polly Low (pal29@cam.ac.uk); enquiries about the Society should be directed to Prof. Colin Austin, Trinity Hall, Cambridge CB2 1TJ. COMMUNICATIONS

Grants and Fellowships

On 28 February 2003 applications are due for the Michael Ventris Memorial Award of up to £1500 to be awarded to postgraduate students or young scholars who have obtained a doctorate within the past eight years in the field of Mycenaean civilization or kindred subjects. Typewritten application should be sent to The Secretary, Institute of Classical Studies, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, United Kingdom. Application should include age, qualifications, academic record, an outline of the proposed work, and the names and addresses of two referees, who should at the same time be asked to write independently in support of the application.

On 15 March 2003 applications are due for the Mary Hamilton Swindler Memorial Prize of $5000 in the field of ancient painting in the Mediterranean and Near East to be awarded to either a PhD candidate in the dissertation preparation phase, or a post-doctoral scholar not more than three years from graduation. Application should be sent to The Mary Hamilton Swindler Memorial Prize Committee, Department of Classical and Near Eastern Archaeology, Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, PA 19010. Application should include a dissertation prospectus, a comprehensive account of the candidate's education and training, as well as studies or experience in the field of ancient painting, three supporting letters from qualified professionals, and any materials or additional information of possible interest to the Committee. Applications will be judged on the aims of the research and its relevance to the field of the prize, and on inclusion of cutting edge material.

Call for Papers

On 25 January 2003 pre-registration and applications for grants are due for the 9th Annual Meeting of the European Association of Archaeologists (EAA AM 2003), to be held in St. Petersburg, Russia from 10-14 September 2003. On 1 April 2003 session or round table proposals are due; on 15 May 2003 final registration is due, including paper or poster proposals, request for visa support, and payment of the registration fee, for hotel accommodation, and 50% for the pre-meeting excursion of your choice; on 15 July 2003 all outstanding payments and late registrations are due (surcharge of $10); on 25 August 2003 information on arrival details is due. Prospective participants are warned to make their plans early for this meeting in order to obtain the entry visa for travel to Russia which is necessary for most foreign citizens and to secure a suitable hotel room. English must be used for all forms, proposals, and abstracts; paper presentations may be in other languages, provided this is announced and an abstract in English is provided. Further information and pre-registration and grant application forms (in WORD), are available at <http://www.e-a-a.org/> or from Ms. Anastasiya Khromova, Meeting Secretariat, EAA AM 2003, European University at St. Petersburg, 3 Gagarinskaya st., St. Petersburg 191187 Russia; telephone: +7-812-279-44-08; fax: +7-812-279-44-08 or +7-812-275-5139; e-mail: info@eaa2003am.spb.ru. The meeting will consist of sessions, round tables, and poster presentations focusing on three main themes:

- Theory and Interpretation of Material Culture
- Cultural Heritage and the Management of the Archaeological Record
- Archaeology in the Modern World

Future Lectures and Conferences

Announcements

Since 20 February 2003 the Archaeological Museum of Thessaloniki has been partially closed for renovation of the building and preparation of new exhibitions. The exhibitions entitled “The Gold of Macedon,” “Prehistoric Thessaloniki,” and “Storage in Display” (interchangeable exhibits) remain open to the public in the New Wing (accessible from the M. Andronikos Street entrance), in addition to “Ancient Farmsteads” (at the Ancient Forum) and “Roman Emperors in Thessaloniki” (at the Tellogleion Foundation, from the middle of June.) Work on the Archaeological Museum will be completed before the 2004 Olympic Games.

Electronic News and Notices

Internet discussion is invited on the theme “Prehistorians around the pond: Reflections on Aegean Prehistory as a Discipline” in conjunction with a Workshop held in March at the Kelsey Museum of Archaeology at the University of Michigan. Opinions and views can be shared on the workshop bulletin board at <http://www.lsa.umich.edu/classics/aegeanbb>; the chat-room at <http://www.lsa.umich.edu/classics/livechat25> can be used for shorter reactions and live discussion with other participants. A description of the workshop and list of participants is available at the former address under the subject ‘Welcome’. Despina Margomenou, John F. Cherry, and Lauren E. Talalay at the University of Michigan have proposed the following questions to initiate discussion and provoke response:

How would you define ‘Aegean Prehistory’ or ‘Aegean Archaeology’? Does it now (or did it ever) have validity as a disciplinary field?

What is the academic significance of this field in your country? Is there an increase or a decrease in student enrolments, degrees conferred, or pertinent publications in archaeological journals (of your country), or in the number of conferences related to Aegean Prehistory, job openings and ‘marketability’ of the field, and funding of relevant fieldwork?

What is the ‘public’ image of the field vs. other archaeological fields in your country (e.g. interest of Museums in hosting relevant exhibitions and educational programs, and media coverage of finds or of the field in general)?

How can we better promote the presence of Aegean prehistory in academia and in the public arena and enhance the possibilities of funding for research and education in this field? What are the most important ‘lessons’ from practicing this field in your country?

If intellectual diversity is a main characteristic of the field, to what extent can it be useful (if at all) in forging a more prominent status for the field and how?

AncientNearEast.Net at <http://www.ancientneareast.net> is a portal site dedicated to electronic resourcing and content provision concerning the archaeology, ancient history, art, and religion of the Ancient Near East from prehistory to the Muslim conquest; included in the focus of this web-site are Cyprus and the prehistoric Aegean. Sites of interest to Nestor readers currently include Akrotiri, Anemospilia (Archanes), Knossos, Mallia, and Mycenae in Greece; Bamboula, Enkomi, Khirokitia, Marki Alonia, Politiko Phorades, Shillourokambos, the Troodos mountains, and the Vasilikos valley in Cyprus; Çatal Hüyük, Ephesos, Cape Gelidonya, Hissarlik (Troy), the Izmir Region Excavations and Research Project, Miletus, and Uluburun in Turkey; as well as sites and bibliographies of interest to Aegean prehistorians elsewhere in the ancient Near East. AncientNearEast.Net also includes a listing of museums and galleries with collections relating to the Ancient Near East.

The web-site of Akkadica at <http://www.akkadica.org> contains a Worldwide Directory of Museums with Near Eastern Collections under 'Museum Links'. Where available this directory provides practical information including address, telephone, fax, e-mail, url, name of curator and/or director, opening days and hours, a description of the collection including its importance and more detailed geographical and chronological information, the origins of the objects, bibliography about the collection including exhibition catalogues, journals, books, and articles about the Near Eastern collections, slide collections, and current and new projects. The list is arranged according to the countries in which the museums are located. New or additional references for the list, as well as comments on the structure of the document, information, corrections, and additions for a new update to be done in the near future may be sent to denysehomes@compuserve.com or to eric.gubel@kmg-mrah.be or to Prof. Dr. Denyse HomÈs-Fredericq, Assyriological Foundation Georges Dossin, Hon. Call for Papers

On 1 April 2003 abstracts (250 words maximum) are due for the Radical Archaeological Theory Symposium (RATS), to be hosted by the Anthropology Department at Binghamton University on 17-18 October 2003. Presentations (15 minutes) will be on two topics: "Praxis and Archaeology" (considering the nature of social activism in archaeology, the goals to be pursued, and how to connect research interests with political struggle) and "Building Methods in 'Post-Processual' and Radical Archaeology" (addressing the formulation of research methods which will contribute to deliberately chosen kinds of socio-political changes). The structure of this symposium will emphasize an open discussion on the topics introduced by the presented papers; both presenters and attendees will therefore be active participants in the symposium. Further information on attending or presenting in this upcoming RATS symposium is available from the organizers at RATS@binghamton.edu or RATS, c/o Bretton Giles, Anthropology Department, State University of New York at Binghamton, PO Box 6000 Binghamton, NY 13902-6000; requests for information should include your email address and phone number.

Future Conference

On 5-6 April 2003 an International Workshop entitled Ariadne's Threads: Connections between Crete and the Greek Mainland in the Post Palatial Period (Late Minoan IIIA2 to Sub-Minoan) will be held at the Scuola Archeologica Italiana di Atene, Odos Parthenonos 14, Atene GR-11742, in the Sala Doro Levi. Further information is available from telephone: 30-10-923-9163; fax: 30-10-922-0908; e-mail: saia@otenet.gr. The program will be:

Call for Papers

On 30 June 2003 abstracts (150-200 words, including name, institution, and title of paper) are due for the 10th Neolithic Seminar - The Neolithization of Eurasia: Paradigms, Models and Concepts Involved, to be held from 6-9 November 2003 at the Department of Archaeology, Ljubljana University, in Ljubljana, Slovenia. The aim of this seminar is to provide a forum for the discussion of the paradigms, models, and concepts involved in the modern investigations and interpretations of the transition from mainly hunter-gatherer Mesolithic to predominantly farming Neolithic societies in Eurasia. All previous Neolithic Seminar proceedings are available in periodical Documenta Prehistorica XXI-XXIX. Abstracts should be e-mailed to miha.budja@uni-lj.si; further information is available from Mihael Budja, telephone: ++38612411570, or from the web-site: <http://www.ff.uni-lj.si/arheologija/neolitik/seminars/s10.html>.

Past Lectures and Conferences

On 10-12 October 2002 the Quatrième Colloque sur l'Illyrie méridionale et l'Épire dans l'Antiquité was held in Grenoble at the Domaine Universitaire de Saint-Martin d'Hères. Further information is available at e-mail: jean-luc.lamboley@upmf-grenoble.fr; or from the Secrétariat du Colloque, Catherine Brun, CRHIPA, Université de Grenoble II, Bât. ARSH, BP 47, 38040 Grenoble, Cedex 9; telephone: (0)4-76-82-73-69; fax: (0)4-76-82-73-65; or from the web-site: <http://www.msh-alpes.prd.fr/balkans/>. Papers of interest to Nestor readers included:

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editor

I thank all the Assistant Editors for their efforts, care, and camaraderie in the production of this publication during the academic year 2002-2003. We bid a fond and sad farewell to Yuki Furuya and Ols Lafe, and wish them both well in all their future endeavors.

From the Editors

The editors of Nestor wish readers a productive and enjoyable summer. Readers are reminded that Nestor is not published in June, July, or August; we hope to see you during our own research activities.

Call for Papers

On 25 May 2003 proposals for workshops are due for the 4th International Congress on the Archaeology of the Ancient Near East (4ICAANE), to be held on 1-7 April 2004 in Berlin, under the auspices of the Institut für Vorderasiatische Altertumskunde, Freie Universität Berlin, in cooperation with the Orient-Abteilung, Deutsches Archäologisches Institut, and the Vorderasiatisches Museum, Staatliche Museen zu Berlin. On 15 December 2003 abstracts are due for papers (20 minutes maximum) and posters, including the title, author(s), institute(s), abstract (200 words maximum), and corresponding author (with complete address); abstracts may be submitted using the internet abstract form, by e-mail, or on disc (with a hard copy added) in MSDOS, Word for Windows, otherwise RTF-Format or ASCII-Text; abstracts submitted by fax are not accepted. Papers, posters, and workshops are invited from prehistorians, historians, art historians, anthropologists, philologists and natural scientists specializing in the archaeology of the Ancient Near East, addressing one of the main themes of the 4ICAANE:

Main Theme 1. Reconstruction of Environment. Natural Resources and Human Inter-Relation Through Time.

Main Theme 2. Art History: Visual Communication

Main Theme 3. Social and Cultural Transformation: The Archaeology of Transition Periods and Dark Ages

Main Theme 4. Reports on Archaeological Field Work

Further information concerning program, general information, travel grants, and hotel accommodation is available from Congress Organisation/Registration, CTW: Congress Organisation Thomas Wiese GmbH, Goßlerstr. 30, D-12161 Berlin; e-mail: 4icaane@ctwcongress.de; web-site: <http://www.4ICAANE.de>; telephone: +49-30-85-99-62-20; fax: +49-30-85-07-98-26.

On 15 June 2003 abstracts are due for a conference entitled Exploring the Maltese Prehistoric Temple Culture (EMPTC 2003) to be held on the island of Malta from 25-28 September 2003, sponsored by the Old Temple Study Foundation; on 1 September 2003 registration is due from scholars wishing to attend the conference without presenting a paper. Abstracts are solicited on subjects including Archaeology and Anthropology, Architecture and Engineering, History and Prehistory, the Physical and Social Sciences, Mythology and Folklore, Philosophy and Religion; abstracts (two pages double-spaced maximum, including graphics) must include name(s) of author(s), institution(s), mailing address (with fax and/or e-mail address for international submitters) of the presenting author (whose responsibility it will be to contact all co-authors), time requested (15, 20, or 30 minutes, or poster), equipment desired, a short and concise title (capitalizing the first letter of each word), and a brief description. All sessions will be conducted in English; the proceedings will be published. Further information is available from Linda C. Eneix, Executive Director, The OTS Foundation, P.O. Box 17166, Sarasota, FL 34276, USA; telephone: 941-918-9215; fax: 941-918-0265; e-mail: EMPTC@aol.com; web-site: <http://www.otsf.org/EMPTC-conference.html>.

On 15 June 2003 abstracts are due for the International Symposium entitled Animal symbolism - the "keystone" animal in oral tradition and interactions between humans and nature, to be held on 12-14 November 2003 in Paris (Villejuif), at Hôpital Paul Brousse, 12-14 Avenue Paul Vaillant-Couturier, and at the André-Georges Haudricourt Centre, CNRS, 7 rue Guy Môquet; on 15 September 2003 registration fees and payments are due. French and English will be the official languages of the symposium. Abstracts (one side of A4 paper maximum, to be submitted in both French and English) should include the title, name(s) of author(s) (with the name of the presenting author underlined), address(es), type of presentation (oral presentation of 20 minutes or poster of 1m x 0.8m maximum); please also specify the types of equipment needed, including overhead projector, slide projector, videotape projector (VCR, VHS-NTSC standard), or LCD projector for PowerPoint presentation. Final copies (in French or English, 15 pages maximum (A4 format, with 1.5 cm margins, and 1.5 line spacing), including references, figures, and annexes) of presentations will be submitted during the symposium for publication. Further information is available from Edmond Dounias, Center for International Forestry Research (CIFOR), P.O. Box 6596, JKPWB Jakarta 10065, Indonesia, telephone: +62-251-622-622 or +62- 251-622-070, ext. 128; fax: +62-251-622-100; e-mail: edounias@cgiar.org; web-sites: <http://www.cifor.org> or <http://lacito.vjf.cnrs.fr/>. Topics will include:

Animals, between nature and imagination: wild, domesticated, modified, monstrous, sacred, and fantastic animals
 Animals envisioned symbolically: elaboration of the "world order" (position in natural classifications, cosmogonies, etc.)
 Oral transmission of animal symbolism: myths, stories, prayers, fables, proverbs, sayings, expressions, etc.
 Bestiaries throughout history
 From symbol to sign: animals as emblems and attributes
 Actions on, with, or for the symbolic animal: rituals and social behavior
 From "world organisation" to nature management: the "keystone" animal and environment
 The pernicious effects of symbolic values attributed to some animals

Future Lectures and Conferences

On 23-26 August 2003 the XVI International Congress of Classical Archaeology (AIAC 2003). Common Ground: Archaeology, Art, Science, and Humanities will be held at the Sheraton Boston Hotel, Boston, Massachusetts, hosted by Harvard University Art Museums. Further information is available from the Organizing Committee of the AIAC, Department of Ancient and Byzantine Art and Numismatics, Harvard University Art Museums, 32 Quincy Street, Cambridge, MA 02138; telephone: 617-495-3393; e-mail: AIAC2003@fas.harvard.edu; web-site: <http://www.artmuseums.harvard.edu/sites/aiac/schedule.html>. Lectures of interest to Nestor readers in the provisional program include:

M. Basedow, "What the Blind Man Saw: New Information from the Iron Age at Troy"

R. K. Schindler and P. Foss, "Constructing a GIS for Mediterranean Survey Data"

A. I. Sündström, "Children from Middle Helladic Asine and Lerna"

On 7-13 September 2003 the 16th Congress of the Association Internationale pour l'Histoire du Verre (AIHV 2003) will be held in London at the Sir Alexander Fleming Building of the Imperial College of Science and Technology in Kensington. Further information is available from the web-site at <http://www.historyofglass.org.uk/> or from the Conference Organiser at martine.newby@virgin.net. Lectures and posters of interest to Nestor readers in the provisional program include:

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors of Nestor are pleased to welcome readers back from their summer research. We bid farewell to Assistant Editors Yuki Furuya and Ols Lafe, and we thank them for their years of service.

Announcements

INSTAP Academic Press is happy to announce that all their publications are now distributed exclusively by Oxbow Books/David Brown. To order INSTAP publications, please go to: <http://www.oxbowbooks.com/trade.cfm?&Publisher=INSTAP%20Academic%20Press>.

Information on Imports in the LBA Aegean: Eric H. Cline, former editor of Nestor, would like to announce that he is beginning work on an updated and revised version of his book, Sailing the Wine-Dark Sea: International Trade and the Late Bronze Age Aegean, which has been out of print for nearly a decade. If anyone is aware of published (repeat, published) imports found in LBA contexts within the Aegean area which were either not included or misidentified in his original volume, or which have been discovered or published since the volume appeared in 1994, he would greatly appreciate being contacted with any information. He would also be interested in any references to books or articles which discuss such imports or LBA trade that have appeared since 1994 or which were omitted in his original book. Full credit and acknowledgements will be given for any assistance received, even for references to objects and publications of which he is already aware. He can be reached via email at ehcline@gwu.edu or via regular post at the Department of Classical and Semitic Languages and Literatures, The George Washington University, 345 Phillips Hall, 801 22nd St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20052.

Please note the change of dates for the 4th International Congress on the Archaeology of the Ancient Near East (4ICAANE) in Berlin, now to be held from 29 March – 3 April 2004 (previously announced for 1-7 April 2004). Further information is available from CTW: Congress Organisation Thomas Wiese GmbH, Goßlerstr. 30, D-12161 Berlin; e-mail: 4icaane@ctw-congress.de; web-site: <http://www.4ICAANE.de>; telephone: +49-(0)30-85-99-62-20; fax: +49-(0)30-85-07-98-26.

Grants and Fellowships

On 1 November 2003 applications for Post-Doctoral Fellowships for 2004 are due to the Institute for Aegean Prehistory (INSTAP); on 1 December 2003 applications for New or Renewal Research Grants are due. Applications for Publication Team Support and Publication

Subventions have no specific due dates. Application forms and further information are available from Karen B. Vellucci, Director of Grant Programs, 3550 Market Street, Suite 100, Philadelphia, PA 19104; e-mail: instap@hotmail.com; telephone: (215) 387-4911; fax: (215) 387-4950.

On 15 November 2003 applications are due for the following fellowships to the American Research Institute in Turkey (ARIT) for the academic year 2004–2005:

National Endowment for the Humanities/ARIT Advanced Fellowships for Research in Turkey: for applicants who have completed their academic training in any field of the humanities, including prehistory, history, art, archaeology, literature, and linguistics as well as interdisciplinary aspects of cultural history; four months to a full year; $13,300 - $40,000;

ARIT Fellowships for Research in Turkey: for post-doctoral and advanced doctoral applicants, conducting research in ancient, medieval, or modern times, in any field of the humanities and social sciences; two to three months up to a year; $4,000 - $16,000;

Samuel H. Kress Foundation/ARIT Fellowship for Research in Archaeology and Art History: for doctoral candidates in art history or archaeology matriculated at U.S. or Canadian institutions; up to one year; up to $15,000.

On 1 February 2004 applications are due for:

Further information is available at <http://ccat.sas.upenn.edu/ARIT> or from the American Research Institute in Turkey, University of Pennsylvania Museum, 33rd and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia, PA 19104-6324; e-mail: leinwand@sas.upenn.edu; telephone: (215) 898-3474; fax: (215) 898-0657.

Calls for Papers

On 1 October 2003 abstracts (250 words) of articles for a volume on the methodology of archaeological survey are due to Mike Skele at mskele@charter.net; the abstract should be included in the body of the message (no attachments). Geophysical prospection in survey work and the site concept as it pertains to survey are subjects of particular interest, as are survey in deserts, jungles, tundras, or beaches, with a view to including a variety of terrains, circumstances, and geographical locations in the final publication. This volume is an outgrowth of a workshop at the Annual Meeting of the Archaeological Institute of America in 1999.

On 10 November 2003 abstracts are due for the international, interdisciplinary conference entitled Classics in Post-Colonial Worlds to be held at the Open University, Milton Keynes, UK on 19-20 May 2004. The conference will be hosted jointly by The Reception of the Texts and Images of Ancient Greece Project (Director: Prof. Lorna Hardwick) and the Ferguson Centre for Research into the Cultures of Africa and South Asia (Director: Dr. David Richards). Papers (ca. 30 minutes) are welcome on any aspect of material or literary culture, as are papers on related issues such as translation. The conference will also be webcast live and will be accessed from the Reception Project website at <http://www2.open.ac.uk/ClassicalStudies/GreekPlays/>. Working titles and short abstracts (ca. 400 words) should be sent for consideration by the conference organizers via e-mail (c.a.gillespie@open.ac.uk) to Carol Gillespie, Project Officer, Reception of Classical Texts, Dept. of Classical Studies, Arts Faculty, The Open University, Walton Hall, Milton Keynes MK7 6AA, UK; telephone: (01908) 655141.

On 28 November 2003 abstracts from postgraduate researchers are due for the eighth annual Symposium on Mediterranean Archaeology (SOMA 2004), to be held on 20-22 February 2004 at Trinity College Dublin. Abstracts (150 words maximum) should be emailed to soma@tcd.ie; further information is available from SOMA 2004, School of Classics, Trinity College, Dublin 2, Republic of Ireland; web-site: <http://www.tcd.ie/Classics/soma/somahome.html>. Papers on the Western Mediterranean and North Africa will be particularly welcome, as will time-periods other than the Bronze Age and Classical periods, expanding the geographic and chronological focus beyond that of past SOMA meetings. The following themes for discussion are suggested, subject to adjustment or expansion based on response:

- Art and iconography
- Death and burial
- Landscape (ancient and modern)
- Warfare
- Religion
- Sacred space
- Heritage industry (encompassing nationalism)
- Ethnicity and group social identity

Future Lectures and Conferences

On 17-19 October 2003 an International Colloquium entitled Current Issues in State Formation: the Mediterranean and Beyond will be held at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Further information is available from Donald Haggis (dchaggis@email.unc.edu), Nicola Terrenato (terrenat@email.unc.edu), or Robert Vander Poppen (rvander@email.unc.edu), or at <http://www.classics.unc.edu/wgems/>. Papers of interest to Nestor readers will include:

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

We welcome new Assistant Editors Kalliopi Efkleidou and Shannon LaFayette, and we welcome back Sarah Dieterle and Jeffrey L. Kramer. The staff of Nestor offer special thanks to Evi Gorogianni who continued to proof-read Greek entries during the past two years; we are keenly aware how much the accuracy of our listings would have suffered without her voluntary assistance. All errors, of course, remain our own.

Correction

Please note the following correction to a bibliographic entry in Nestor 30.6 (September 2003):

Wiener, Malcolm H., Spyros Iakovidis, Jeremy B. Rutter, Reinhard Jung, Andreas §030563
Vlachopoulos, Sigrid Deger-Jalkotzy, Walter Gauss, and Florian Ruppenstein
2003. "Report on the Final General Discussion." Pp. 245-260 in LH IIIC
Chronology and Synchronisms.

The last three authors were omitted from the original entry. The editors of Nestor apologize for the error.

Grants and Fellowships

On 15 November 2003 applications must be postmarked for the following fellowship to the American School of Classical Studies at Athens (ASCSA) for the academic year 2004–2005:

National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships for 2004-2005: for postdoctoral scholars and professionals in relevant fields, U.S. citizens or foreign nationals who have lived in the U.S. for the three years immediately preceding the application deadline; five to ten months in duration coinciding with the American ASCSA's academic year, September to June; up to $35,000.

On 1 December 2003, 1 April 2004, and 1 September 2004 applications are due for:

Wiener Laboratory Research Associateships: for well-defined research projects at the laboratory; up to $5,000.

On 15 January 2004 applications are due for both membership to ASCSA and the following fellowships for which students and scholars of Aegean prehistory may be eligible:

Regular Members: for graduate students in classical studies and ancient Mediterranean studies and related fields (e.g., history of art, anthropology, prehistory, etc.), who, preferably, have completed at least one year of graduate work; $8,840 plus room at Loring Hall on the grounds of ASCSA, board, and waiver of ASCSA fees.

The Jacob Hirsch: for a PhD candidate or a recent PhD from the U.S. or Israel whose dissertation or research project requires a lengthy residence in Greece; $8,840 plus room, board, and waiver of ASCSA fees.

Wiener Laboratory Fellowships: for graduate students or postdoctoral scholars working on well defined projects in skeletal, faunal, geoarchaeological, or environmental studies; $15,500 to $25,000.

Mellon (East European) Research Fellowships: for scholars from Bulgaria, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Romania, and Slovakia in any field of classical studies or post-classical studies.

Solow Summer Research Fellowships 2004: for senior (postdoctoral) scholars working towards publication of material from sites excavated under the auspices of ASCSA; up to three months; up to $1,500 per month.

Summer Program Fellowships: for graduate and undergraduate students and for high school and college teachers. In summer 2004, this 3 1/2 week session will explore the sites and monuments of Turkey.

On 22 February 2004 applications are due for:

School Advanced Fellowships: for students who have completed the Regular Program or one year as a Student Associate Member; $8,840 plus room at Loring Hall on the grounds of ASCSA, board, and waiver of ASCSA fees.

Detailed information and applications are available from the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, 6-8 Charlton Street, Princeton, NJ 08540-5232; telephone: (609) 683-0800; fax: (609) 924-0578; e-mail: ascsa@ascsa.org; web-site: <http://www.ascsa.edu.gr/>.

On 31 December 2003 applications are due for the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC) Multi-Country Research Fellowships: support for PhD candidates and senior scholars in the humanities, social sciences, or allied natural sciences whose research has regional or trans-regional significance and requires travel to several countries, at least one of which hosts a participating American overseas research center; up to $9,000. Further information, including a list of CAORC member centers to which fellows may affiliate, and applications are available at CAORC's web-site: <http://www.caorc.org>.

On 1 January 2004 applications are due for the Margo Tytus Visiting Scholars Program in the fields of archaeology, history, or philology at the University of Cincinnati, Classics Department, tenable during the academic year from 1 October 2004 through 31 May 2005. Tytus Fellows will ordinarily be at least five years beyond receipt of the PhD, and will come to Cincinnati to pursue their own research. The minimum and maximum terms for Long Term Fellows are one academic quarter (two and a half months) to one academic year; Short Term Fellows will reside in Cincinnati for one to two months. Both categories of Tytus Fellows will receive housing, a transportation allowance, and office space; a monthly stipend of $1,000 is additionally provided for Long Term Fellows. Further information on the resources of the University of Cincinnati Burnam Classics Library and application forms are available from the Director, Margo Tytus Visiting Scholars Program, Department of Classics, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, OH 45221-0226; e-mail: secretary@classics.uc.edu; or from the web-site at <http://classics.uc.edu/tytus>.

On 15 January 2004 applications for grants (maximum £10,000) to assist with the publication of archaeological fieldwork in the Mediterranean world, with possible priority to Bronze Age subjects, are due to the Mediterranean Archaeological Trust. Applications comprise a description of the proposed work (maximum 2000 words), an outline budget, and either references in a sealed envelope (minimum 2, maximum 4) or the names of the referees if the references are sent directly by the referees. Applications should be sent to Professor Sir John Boardman, Mediterranean Archaeological Trust, Ashmolean Museum, Oxford OX1 2PH, UK.

Call for Papers

On 1 November 2003 abstracts are due for the 2004 Visiting Scholar Conference entitled We Are What We Eat: Archaeology, Food, and Identity, to be held on 12-13 March 2004 at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. Archaeologists working in a wide range of time periods and areas with a variety of methodological and theoretical approaches, as well as scholars working in fields outside of but relevant to archaeology (including sociocultural anthropology, sociology, and history) are invited to submit abstracts (150-250 words) concentrating on the cultural roles and contexts of food, and discussing how tastes, taboos, food procurement strategies, modes of cooking and dining, and discard habits are intertwined with the construction and maintenance of individual and group identities, especially in relationship to the social significance of daily consumption practices. Potential topics may include, but need not be limited to:

Theoretical approaches to the study of food and foodways

Food and social status, ethnicity, prestige, gender, age, role, religion, class, etc.

The social and labor roles associated with various types of food production, preparation, and consumption

The limits placed by ecological and biological constraints on the expression of identity through food

The effect of archaeologists' own identities on interpretations of foodways (e.g.: to what extent is subjectivity an issue? If it does affect interpretations, how?)

How different facets of identity may be expressed at different stages of food production and use (for example: gender may be expressed in food procurement and preparation practices, but not in actual consumption habits)

The extent to which culturally specific food patterns may be generalized across societies

The extent to which archaeologists working in different areas and time periods can reasonably expect to explore identity through food practices (for example: can prehistorians address ethnicity? Can hunter-gatherer archaeologists discuss status?)

Further information is available from Dr. Katheryn Twiss at ktwiss@siu.edu or from the web-site at <http://www.siu.edu/~cai/VS.2004.htm>.

Future Lectures and Conferences

On 1-2 November 2003 the University of Southampton will host a conference entitled Land and Sea: integrated archaeologies. Further information is available from the conference web-site at <http://www.arch.cam.ac.uk/~fcs22/index.htm>. Papers of interest to Nestor readers will include:

N. Phoca-Cosmetatou, "Changing perceptions of the Cycladic islands during early Prehistory: the timing of the first occupation"

H. Dawson, "Methodological Issues in the Study of Island Colonisation and Abandonment in the Prehistoric Mediterranean"

J. Leonard, "Synergy in the Surf Zone: Combining Land and Sea Perspectives in the Study of Ancient Cypriot Ports"

On 8 November 2003 at 1:30 pm A. Lloyd will deliver an ISIS Vronwy Hankey Memorial Lecture entitled "The Greeks in Egypt: the Bronze Age" in the Cruciform lecture theatre at University College London. Further information is available from Diane Woolley at 01438 813689.

On 19-22 November 2003 the 2003 Annual Meeting of the American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR) will take place at the Grand Hyatt Buckhead Hotel in Atlanta, Georgia. Contact and registration information, and a full program and abstract book are available at <http://www.asor.org/AM/am.htm>. Papers of interest to Nestor readers will include:

- C. Renfrew, "The World's Diminishing Archaeological Heritage: the Role of Museums and Scholars"

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors of Nestor are pleased to announce that the bibliography listed in Nestor 28 (2001) is now available on the Nestor web-site at <http://classics.uc.edu/nestor/>. We thank Michael Ludwig and Sarah Dieterle for reformatting the entries, and John Wallrod for converting and up-loading them.

Announcements

From 9 September to 21 December 2003 an exhibition entitled The Decipherment of Linear B and the Ventris-Chadwick Correspondence, is being shown in the Cypriot Gallery of the Fitzwilliam Museum, organized by the Mycenaean Epigraphy Group, Faculty of Classics, Cambridge. The exhibition is funded by The Chadwick Fund, in celebration of the 50th anniversary of the publication of the decipherment. Some of the correspondence between Michael Ventris and John Chadwick will be available on-line at the web-site of the Mycenaean Epigraphy Group at Cambridge at <http://www.classics.cam.ac.uk/Everyone/linearb/correspondence.html>.

From 23 October 2003 to 3 January 2004 an exhibition entitled From Ishtar to Aphrodite: 3200 Years of Cypriot Hellenism is being shown at the Onassis Foundation in New York (5th Avenue and 52nd Street, with the entrance on 52nd), under the auspices of the President of the Republic of Cyprus, curated by Dr. Sophocles Hadjisavvas, Director of the Cyprus Department of Antiquities since 1998. The exhibition focuses on the historical process of the Hellenization of Cyprus, presenting art and artifacts from the island of Cyprus spanning the Late Bronze Age to the end of the Hellenistic period. Of particular interest to Nestor readers are the offerings from a rich burial of the fourteenth century B.C., which illustrate the cosmopolitan character of Cyprus. Further information is available at the web-site of the Onassis Foundation at <http://www.onassisusa.org>.

From 5 February to 9 May 2004 an exhibition entitled Tanagra - Myth and Archaeology / Tanagra - Mythe et Archeologie will be shown at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts / Musée des beaux arts de Montréal. This exhibition is a co-production of the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts (Associate Curator John M. Fossey) and the Louvre (Principal Curator Violaine Jeammet), where it is being shown until early January 2004. Of particular interest to Nestor readers are larnakes and associated materials from the Mycenaean tombs at Bratzi included in the section on the history of Tanagra. Further information is available at <http://www.mbam.qc.ca/fr/index.html> or <http://www.mmfa.qc.ca/en/index.html>. Bibliographic information for the publication of the catalogue of this exhibition is listed as §030722, infra.

On 5 February 2004 the new galleries of Mediterranean Antiquities at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts / Musée des beaux arts de Montréal will be opened, displaying material which either has not been seen for some years or has been acquired since the last exhibition of the permanent collection of antiquities. Of particular interest to Nestor readers are both Greek and Near/Middle Eastern prehistoric and protohistoric objects in the permanent collection, and Mycenaean and Geometric material among the many pieces from the Diniacopoulos Collection owned by the Musée national des beaux-arts du Québec, which are in Montreal on a long-term (10 year) loan.

Electronic News and Notices

A. Bernard Knapp and Michael Given have announced the final publication of the Sydney Cyprus Survey Project (SCSP), including a digital archive of the data from the project's database and GIS, available from the web-site of the UK Archaeology Data Service at http://ads.ahds.ac.uk/catalogue/projArch/scsp_var_2001/index.cfma, and a new 200-page web-site, available at <http://www.scsp.arts.gla.ac.uk/scsp/default.html>. The SCSP web-site includes interactive maps, photos, and texts, which allow the visitor to explore the SCSP landscape, a searchable gazetteer of SCSP's Places of Special Interest, GIS maps, a full account of SCSP's methodology, and period summaries including prehistoric remains. Bibliographic information for the monograph published by the Sydney Cyprus Survey Project is listed as §030715, infra.

The Mycenaean Epigraphy Group at Cambridge University has announced a new Linear B web-site at <http://www.classics.cam.ac.uk/Everyone/linearb>, which seeks to make information about Linear B and other Aegean Bronze Age scripts available to a wide audience. The site includes a history of the decipherment illustrated with records from the archival holdings of the Group, general information about Linear B and access to fonts, and information about courses at Cambridge supplemented with on-line teaching materials generated by the Group, which teachers are invited to access.

Caroline and Hector Williams have announced the posting of a brief popular presentation of a collection of Cypriote pottery, lamps, and figurines at the University of British Columbia at <http://www.cnrs.ubc.ca/cyprus>. The objects were collected by a British Columbian, Sid Leary, who served in Cyprus during WWI. The web-site has been scanned from a pamphlet, which is now out of print, produced by the Museum of Anthropology. Full publication of the collection is underway along with other Cypriote material from the Cesnola collection which had come to the museum of the University of British Columbia from Stanford.

Dr. Wade Kotter has announced that the beta version of the Bibliography of Archaeological Excavations in the Southern Levant (BAESL), with over 15,000 citations, is now available at <http://library.weber.edu/cm/wkotter/baasl.cfm>. BAESL remains a work in progress; in order to increase the value of BAESL as a bibliographic tool supporting research in the archaeology of the southern Levant, comments, suggestions, or criticisms regarding the contents or functionality of BAESL will be appreciated by Dr. Kotter, Social Sciences Librarian, Stewart Library, Weber State University, 2901 University Circle, Ogden, UT 84408-2901; telephone: 801-626-7458; fax: 801-626-7045; e-mail: wkotter@weber.edu.

Grants and Fellowships

On 2 February 2004 applications are due for the Stuart Swiny and Helena Wilde Swiny Fellowship and the Anita Cecil O'Donovan Fellowship for 2004-2005. These two grants, each of $750, help fund research at the Cyprus American Archaeological Research Institute (CAARI) in Nicosia, Cyprus for graduate students of any nationality conducting research associated with an on-going field project in Cyprus or relevant to Cypriot archaeology. Residence at CAARI is required.

Applications must include a project statement, expected schedule of work, budget, curriculum vitae, and two letters of recommendation. Each applicant will be considered for both fellowships. Applications should be sent to CAARI at Boston University, 656 Beacon Street, Fifth Floor, Boston, MA 02215; e-mail: caari@bu.edu; fax: 617-353-6575. Further information is available at <http://www.caari.org/>.

Call for Papers

On 15 January 2004 abstracts are due for an international conference on Confronting Catastrophe in the Ancient World, to be held on 20-23 June 2004 at Osmangazi University in Eskesehir, Turkey, to be followed by an associated field excursion around key cultural and geological sites of past rapid geological and environmental change in western Turkey (24-30 June 2004). Geologists, archaeologists, historians, anthropologists, climate scientists, and ecologists are invited to an interdisciplinary forum to examine human responses to past rapid environmental change; contributions which seek to elucidate the cultural history of major environmental downturns or reconstruct the environmental history of dramatic cultural transitions are sought, particularly those with an emphasis on establishing high-resolution chronologies of cultural and environmental change. Abstracts (300 words maximum, or ca. one A4 page) should be submitted electronically, either through the website at <http://www.ogu.edu.tr/~jeoloji/confcat/index.htm> or via e-mail at ealtunel@ogu.edu.tr. Further information is also available from the convenors: Dr. Erhan Altunel, Osmangazi University, Eskesehir, Turkey; telephone: +90-(0)-222-239-3750/ Ext. 3403; fax: +90-222-229-0535; and Dr. Iain Stewart, University of Glasgow, Glasgow G12 8QQ, UK; telephone: +44-(0)-141-330-6653 or ext. 6653; fax: +44-(0)-141-330-4894; e-mail: istewart@geog.gla.ac.uk.

Future Conference

On 2-5 January 2004 the 105th Annual Meeting of the Archaeological Institute of America will be held at the Hilton San Francisco Hotel and Towers in San Francisco, California. Further information is available from the AIA web-site at <http://www.archaeological.org/>, or from Jennifer Moen, AIA Conference Manager, Archaeological Institute of America, Boston University, 656 Beacon Street, Boston, MA 02215-2006; telephone (617) 353-8704; fax: (617) 353-6550; e-mail: jmoen@aia.bu.edu. Papers, posters and workshops of interest to Nestor readers will include:

COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors of Nestor regret to announce that it is necessary to raise prices for all categories of subscriptions to Nestor by $2.00 for the calendar year 2004, due to rising costs of production and postage. Invoices are included with this issue, and we request that subscribers renew promptly.

We wish our readers a happy holiday season and all the best in the New Year.

Announcement

It gives us great pleasure to congratulate Professor Lord Colin Renfrew, Director of the McDonald Institute for Archaeology at the University of Cambridge, on his receipt of the European Latsis Prize 2003 from the European Science Foundation for his exceptional contributions to European Prehistory. The European Science Foundation recognized Renfrew as a pioneer in his field for using innovative, interdisciplinary techniques to shed light on the human past. These have included the use of trace-element analysis and tree-ring calibrated radiocarbon dating to illuminate prehistoric trading patterns and to raise new questions about how early European culture spread, and more recent research combining prehistoric archaeology, historical linguistics, and molecular genetics to propose new origins for the languages of Europe.

Electronic News and Notices

Robert Allan has announced the intention to edit and publish an electronic periodical entitled Ugarit Discussion, which will be distributed in PDF form, as well as being available for download on the Ugarit Discussion Group at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Ugarit/The>. All submitted articles will remain the copyright of the author; the editor requires only an e-mail authorizing publication as a PDF. Papers are invited both from established scholars and from students. A list of guidelines for contributors is forthcoming. Further information is available from Robert Allan at rallan@mac.com.

A discussion list entitled Homerica: Scholarly issues pertaining to Homeric poetry, moderated by Martin Mueller, is now available at <http://lsv.uky.edu/archives/homerica.html>. No archive file is currently available for browsing.

Call for Papers

On 21 March 2004 abstracts are due for Hittites, Greeks and Their Neighbors in Ancient Anatolia, An International Conference on Cross-Cultural Interaction, to be held from 17-19 September 2004 at the Michael C. Carlos Museum, Emory University. The aim of this multi-disciplinary conference is to encourage dialogue on the mechanisms and results of interaction between the peoples and cultures of ancient Anatolia among archeologists, historians, and philologists in the Classical, Near Eastern, and Anatolian traditions. Papers (30 minutes) are welcome on adaptation and change or continuity of culture over time and space, and on the construction of ethnic identities in the multi-cultural area of Anatolia from the second millennium through the sixth century B.C., using textual, archaeological, art historical, anthropological, and philological approaches. Abstracts (400 words maximum) should be e-mailed by attachment to Billie Jean Collins (bcollin@emory.edu), Ian Rutherford (i.c.rutherford@reading.ac.uk), and Mary R. Bachvarova (mbachvar@willamette.edu), in addition to a separate file with name, e-mail and postal addresses, title of paper, and university affiliation. If an e-mail submission is not possible, the typed abstract and cover page should be posted to Billie Jean Collins, Department of Middle Eastern and Southeast Asian Studies, Emory University, S312 Callaway Center, Atlanta, GA 30322.

Past Conference

On 24-25 November 2003 a colloquium commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of the decipherment of Linear B by Michael Ventris and John Chadwick was held in Florence, jointly organized by the Università degli Studi di Firenze and by the Università degli Studi Mediterranea di Reggio Calabria. The program was:

- P. Carlier, "La cosiddetta feudalità micenea da Palmer a oggi"
 P. De Fidio, "Antropologia e storia negli studi sulle società micenee"
 A. Laronde, "Pourquoi les Mycéniens n'ont pas fréquenté la côte Cyrénéenne"
 M. R. Cataudella, "Un acheo del XV secolo e la monarchia micenea"
 Y. Duhoux, "La soi-disant triade divine des nouvelles tablettes en Linéaire B de Thèbes"
 M. Jasink, "La Potnia micenea: vecchie e nuove teorie a confronto"
 A. Uchitel, "The Question of Survival of Mycenaean Social Institutions in Archaic and Classical Greece"
 M. L. Gregersen Nosch, "Le linéaire B dans les pays germanophones (BRD, DDR, Autriche, Suisse)"
 G. Mariotta, "'Collettori' nelle tavolette tebane: prosopografia e ruolo istituzionale"
 I. Achilli, "Motivi micenei nel regno di Troia"
 A. Giovannini, "La decifrazione della Lineare B nel contesto della questione omerica"
 F. Montanari, "Da Omero a Micene: cinquanta o tremila anni dopo"
 A. Greco, "La gestione dell'allevamento tra Pilo e Cnosso"
