COMMUNICATIONS

From the Editors

The editors of Nestor share for your holiday amusement the following ode from members of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, Summer Session II, with apologies to Gilbert & Sullivan. Best wishes to all Nestor readers in the New Year.

I Am the Very Model of a Mycenaean Megaron

I am the very model of a Mycenaean megaron.
Topographer and tourist by the dozens I'm no beggar on.
I've seen the lives of Neleus and Nestor and their hangers on,
Carl Blegen, Mike Galaty, and a whole lot more I'm vaguer on.
I am the very model of a Mycenaean megaron.

I'm very well acquainted too with tablets that are linear.
My frescoes tell of octopods and fishes that are finnyer.
Anterooms and tholos tombs I'm not the least bit hazy on.
I even cite dimensions of the one at Koryphasion.

I'm very big on porticoes and columns that are upside down.
My stirrup jars and amphoras and all my pithoi do astound.
Had we a Clytemnestra here, my bathtub sure would turn her on.
I am the very model of a Mycenaean megaron.

Archaeologues and philologues and linguists they do treat me fine.
If only they'd reconstitute my vast northeastern store of wine,
Another three millennia I swear that I would stagger on.
I am the very model of a Mycenaean megaron.

Earthquakes by the numbers, troubles by the score,
They beat me up and burned me down, but, like the phoenix, I came up for more.
I've rocked and rolled and smoked enough to turn the old Mick Jagger on.
I am the very model of a Mycenaean megaron.

Admittedly in Pylos town we have no Circles A and B,
 But there is no place on earth that I would rather be.
 And one thing you can bet your inlaid dagger on,
 I am the very model of a Mycenaean megaron.

I've seen the fates of Spartiates on battlegrounds Sphaktrial.
 Of Ibrahim and Codrington I know the whole material.
 Detritus and effluvium, I'm lucky they did cover me,
 And doubly so that Schliemann was unable to discover me.
 Στον κόσμο, στην Ελλάδα, και στην δική μου άγορα,
 I am the very model of a Mycenaean megaron.

Obituaries

The editors of Nestor are saddened to report the death of Professor Emeritus Paul Åström. His publications on Cypriot and Mycenaean archaeology, Bronze Age chronology, and the archaeological study of fingerprints are only a portion of Professor Åström's contributions to the field; as founder of Paul Åströms Förlag and publisher of Studies in Mediterranean Archaeology (SIMA) he facilitated the publication of countless other studies in Aegean archaeology.
