Grants and Fellowships

On 28 February 2009 applications are due for the Annual Academic Program of the American Research Center in Sofia (ARCS). ARCS offers three programs, with accompanying fellowships for which graduate students are eligible to apply, in cooperation with various Bulgarian institutions of higher education: (1) a 9-month program for the period September-May (for graduate students who will participate in the ARCS academic program during both terms and devote the rest of the time to independent research and travel); (2) a fall term program for the period September-November on the history, material culture, and civilization (including ethnography and music) of Bulgaria and the Balkan region relating to the period from antiquity to the present day; and (3) a spring term program for the period February-April on the history of religion in Bulgaria from antiquity to the 20th century, including ancient religion, Christianity (Orthodoxy, Catholicism, and other Christian faiths and movements), Judaism, and Islam. Graduate students, advanced undergraduates, teachers, and scholars regardless of nationality are eligible for the two one-semester programs. ARCS will host the programs' lectures and seminars, provide logistical support, organize related trips, and facilitate opportunities for taking Bulgarian and other Balkan language classes and access to local libraries, museums, and other educational institutions. Further information and application forms are available from <http://www.einaudi.cornell.edu/arcs> or from Professor Kevin Clinton via e-mail at kmcl1@cornell.edu.

On 28 February 2009 abstracts (500 words maximum) are due for the III International Conference on Remote Sensing in Archaeology, to be held on 17-21 August 2009 in Tiruchirappalli, India. On 1 June 2009 full papers (camera ready) will be due. Further information is available at <http://www.spacetimeplace2009.org>. Different theoretical approaches and case studies are welcome. All previous Neolithic Seminar proceedings are available in the periodical Documenta Prehistorica XXI-XXXV. Abstracts should be submitted by e-mail to Prof. Dr. Mihael Budja (miha.budja@ff.uni-lj.si) and/or Dr. Dimitrij Mlekuž (dimitrij.mlekuz@guest.arnes.si); further information is available at <http://arheologija.ff.uni-lj.si/>.
