On 15 January 2005 applications for grants (maximum £10,000) for the preparation for publication of archaeological fieldwork in the Mediterranean world, with possible priority to Bronze Age subjects, are due to the Mediterranean Archaeological Trust. Applications comprise a description of the proposed work (maximum 2000 words), an outline budget, and either two references in a sealed envelope or the names of the referees if the references are sent directly by the referees. Applications should be sent to Professor Sir John Boardman, Mediterranean Archaeological Trust, Ashmolean Museum, Oxford OX1 2PH, UK or by fax to +44-(0)1865-278082.

Calls for Papers

On 15 November 2004 abstracts (250 words) are due from graduate students and young scholars and researchers for the 9th Symposium on Mediterranean Archaeology (SOMA 2005), to be held on 24-26 February 2005 at Chieti University in Central Italy. Topics concerning North Africa and the Western Mediterranean and those that treat the Mediterranean area in a wider perspective are invited; subjects on any Mediterranean area or period will be welcomed. Papers (English only) will be 15 minutes and will be followed by discussion. An on-line registration form is available at <http://www.soma2005.org/>; further information can be obtained from info@soma2005.org.

On 30 November 2005 registration for posters is due for the 3rd International Sifnean Symposium, to be held on 29 June - 2 July 2006 on Sifnos island, Greece; on 8 February 2006 registration for papers is due. Fields of research will include Antiquity, Byzantium, the Frankish Period - Ottoman period, modern history, architecture, the natural environment and settlements, and folklore. Past Symposia presentations have been published in the Proceedings. Participation at the Symposium is free; the Symposium aims to cover travel expenses within Europe and the accommodation expenses on Sifnos for participants who make presentations. Further information in Greek and English is available from the Society of Sifnean Studies, 6 Vasili Tsitsani Street, 166 75 Glyfada, Greece; telephone: (0030) 210-89-40-662; fax (0030) 210-89-80-287.

On 1 December 2004 abstracts (200 words) are due for a conference entitled Mediterranean Encounters: People, History and Literature, to be held in Cambridge on 11-12 February 2005, hosted by the Middle East Graduate Association (MEGA) of the University of Cambridge in association with the Center for Research in the Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities (CRASSH). This conference will bring together studies on the exchange and interaction between various peoples within the Mediterranean in the areas of trade, culture, literature, and relations of power from the ancient to the modern period. Papers will be in English. Contact details, academic affiliation, and title of paper should be sent with abstracts. Further information is available from Murat C. Menguc, Secretary, Middle East Graduate Association, Clare Hall, Cambridge CB3 9AL; e-mail: mm499@cam.ac.uk.
