COMMUNICATIONS

Grants and Fellowships

On 19 October 2009 applications are due for the following fellowship to the American School of Classical Studies at Athens (ASCSA) for the academic year 2010–2011:

Fulbright Fellowships: Candidates must submit ASCSA application for Regular or Student Associate Membership by due date for Fulbright application; further information and applications are available at <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/home.html>.

On 1 December 2009 applications are due for:

National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships: for postdoctoral scholars and professionals in relevant fields, U.S. citizens or foreign nationals who have lived in the U.S. for the three years immediately preceding the application deadline; up to $40,000.

Paul Rehak Memorial Traveling Fellowship: for regular members and student associate members already attending the School for the entire 2009-2010 academic year; to allow individuals to travel in Greece to conduct a research project; up to $1,000.

On 1 December 2009, 1 April 2010, and 1 September 2010 applications are due for:

Wiener Laboratory Research Associateships: for well-defined research projects at the laboratory; up to $7,000.

Wiener Laboratory Travel Grants for Archaeological Science Research in Greece: for graduate students or postdoctoral scholars from North American institutions working on projects in archaeological science in Greece; for travel: $2,000.

On 15 January 2010 applications are due for both membership to ASCSA and the following fellowships for which students and scholars of Aegean prehistory may be eligible:

Regular Program Membership: for graduate students in classical studies and ancient Mediterranean studies and related fields (e.g., history of art, anthropology, prehistory, etc.), who, preferably, have completed at least one year of graduate work; a limited number of fellowships are awarded on the basis of competitive examinations.

Student Associate Membership: Open to the same group of students as Regular Membership. Associates typically are advanced students who plan to pursue independent research projects, and who do not wish to commit to the full Regular Program.

Summer Sessions Membership: Two six-week sessions explore the sites and museums in Greece. Open to graduate and undergraduate students and to high school and college teachers.

The fee of $3,860 includes tuition, travel within Greece, room, and partial board. A limited number of scholarships are available through the School.

The Jacob Hirsch: for a PhD candidate or a recent PhD from the U.S. or Israel whose dissertation or research project requires a lengthy residence in Greece; $11,500 plus room, board, and waiver of ASCSA fees.

Wiener Laboratory Fellowships: for graduate students or postdoctoral scholars working on well defined projects in skeletal, faunal, geoarchaeological, or environmental studies; $15,500 to $27,000.

Getty Research Exchange Fellowships (CAORC): for scholars who are Greek citizens and who have already obtained a Ph.D. or have professional experience in the study or preservation of cultural heritage; to undertake a specific research project at an American overseas research center in another country; recipient must affiliate with one of the approved overseas research centers in the Mediterranean Basin and Middle East; up to $3,000 for no less than one month for living expenses and up to $1,000 for travel expenses. Applications are available at <http://www.caorc.org>.

On 16 January applications are due for:

CAORC Multi-Country Research Fellowships: for Ph.D. candidates and senior scholars whose research has regional significance and requires travel to several countries, at least one of which hosts an American overseas research center; up to $9,000. Applications are available at <http://www.caorc.org>.

On 19 February 2010 applications are due for:

School Advanced Fellowships: for students who have completed the Regular Program or one year as a Student Associate Member; $11,500 plus room at Loring Hall on the grounds of ASCSA, board, and waiver of ASCSA fees.

On 15 March applications are due for:

CAORC Coulson/Cross Aegean Exchange Program: for Greek nationals and scholars to pursue short-term research in Turkey under the auspices of the American Research Institute in Turkey (ARIT); $250 per week stipend plus round-trip airfare.

There is no deadline for application for Senior Associate Membership: for postdoctoral scholars with suitable research projects. Application should be made to the Director in Athens.

Detailed information and applications are available from the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, 6-8 Charlton Street, Princeton, NJ 08540; telephone: (609) 683-0800; fax: (609) 924-0578; e-mail: ascsa@ascsa.org; web-site: <http://www.ascsa.edu.gr/>.

On 1 November 2009 applications for 2010 are due to the Institute for Aegean Prehistory (INSTAP) for the Post-Doctoral Fellowship, the Librarian Fellowship at the INSTAP Study Center for East Crete (SCEC), Six-Week Research Grants at INSTAP SCEC, the Petrography Internship at INSTAP SCEC, and the Rip Rapp Doctoral Fellowship for dissertation research at the INSTAP SCEC; on 15 November 2009 applications for New or Renewal Research Grants are due. Applications for Publication Team Support and Publication Subventions have no specific due dates. An application materials are available at <http://www.aegeanprehistory.net>, or printed copies may be obtained by request from Karen B. Vellucci, Director of Grant Programs, INSTAP, 3550 Market Street, Suite 100, Philadelphia, PA 19104; fax: (215) 387-4950; e-mail: instap@hotmail.com. All applications must be submitted by email.

On 1 November 2009 applications are due for the following fellowships to the American Research Institute in Turkey (ARIT) for the academic year 2010–2011:

ARIT Fellowships for Research in Turkey: for post-doctoral and advanced doctoral applicants, conducting research in ancient, medieval, or modern times, in any field of the humanities and social sciences; two to three months up to a year; $4,000 - $16,000.

National Endowment for the Humanities/ARIT Advanced Fellowships for Research in Turkey: for U.S. citizens or permanent residents affiliated with U.S. or Canadian institution who have completed their academic training in any field of the humanities, including prehistory, history, art, archaeology, literature, and linguistics as well as interdisciplinary aspects of cultural history; four months to a full year; $16,800 to $50,400.

Applications are available at <http://www.caorc.org>.

On 1 February 2010 applications are due for the following fellowships to the Cyprus American Archaeological Research Institute (CAARI) for the academic year 2010–2011:

The Helena Wylde Swiny and Stuart Swiny Fellowship: for a graduate student of any nationality in a college or university in the U.S. or Canada to pursue a research project that is relevant to an ongoing field project in Cyprus or that requires work on Cyprus itself; to undertake research time in residence at CAARI and to help defray costs of travel; $1,000.

The Anita Cecil O'donovan Fellowship: for a graduate student of any nationality, enrolled in a graduate program in any nation, to pursue research on a project relevant to the archaeology and/or culture of Cyprus; to fund a period of research time in residence at CAARI and to help defray costs of travel; $1000.

Calls for Papers

On 31 October 2009 proposals are due for a conference entitled Girls in Antiquity to be held on 8-10 October 2010 in Berlin at the German Archaeological Institute (DAI) by 'FemArc. Network of women in archaeology' (<http://www.femarc.de>). Proposals for papers (30 minutes maximum) including a working title, an abstract (250 words maximum), address, and a short academic CV should be sent via email to the organizers: Dr. Susanne Moraw at smo@dainst.de and Anna Kieburg at a.kieburg@web.de. The conference languages are German and English. Publication of the conference is planned in the series Frauen – Forschung – Archäologie. The chronological range of the conference is from early Neolithic times to Late Antiquity, within the geographical limits of Europe, Egypt, and the Ancient Near East. Contributions by ancient historians, philologists, and archaeologists are sought, as well as from other disciplines such as social or educational sciences or ethnology, and explicitly also from young scholars. Further information is available at <http://www.femarc.de/Netzwerk/index.html>. Topics will include

- Ancient definitions of girlhood and rites of passage
- Birth-/Family planning
- Development of gender identity
- Material culture and social practice
- Discourse about girls in antiquity
- Research and media

On 1 November 2009 workshops, tutorials, and commercial demos to be presented on the first day are due for the The XXXVIII Annual Conference on Computer Applications and Quantitative Methods in Archaeology (CAA 2010): Fusion of Cultures, to be held on 6-9 April 2010 in Grenada, Spain. On 15 November 2009 submission of full papers and of videos for the virtual theatre is due. On 30 January 2010 submission of short papers and posters are due. Further information is available at <http://www.caa2010.org/>

Typical CAA topics include:

- Agent-based models
- Bioarchaeology
- CIDOC and other digital standards
- Databases
- 3D data capture and modeling
- Data management systems and other field applications
- GIS
- Predictive modeling
- Open source software in archaeology
- Photogrammetry and imaging
- Prospection and remote sensing
- Quantitative methods
- High precision surveying
- Virtual museums
- Virtual reality

Future Lectures and Conferences

The following lectures to the New York Aegean Bronze Age Colloquium have been announced. All lectures will be held at the Institute of Fine Arts, One East 78th Street at 6:30 pm. Please R.S.V.P. to 212-992-5803 or IFA.events@NYU.edu.
