Grants and Fellowships

On 1 November 2009 applications are due for the following fellowships from the Archaeological Institute of America (AIA) for the academic year 2010–2011:

Olivia James Traveling Fellowship: for students who are U.S. citizens with preference to those doing research toward a PhD or who are recent recipients (within 5 years of the application deadline) of a PhD, to travel and study in Greece, the Aegean Islands, Sicily, Southern Italy, Asia Minor, Mesopotamia; $25,000.

Harriet and Leon Pomerance Fellowship: for citizens or permanent residents of the U.S or Canada, or students actively pursuing an advanced degree at a North American college or university, who have not previously held a Pomerance Fellowship, for an individual project of a scholarly nature related to Aegean Bronze Age Archaeology: $5,000.

Publication Preparation Grant: for graduate students and postdoctoral professionals to support completion and publication of field research in a peer-reviewed outlet by assisting in the final analysis and writing of the results of field research so that, by the end of the second year, a completed manuscript may be submitted for publication: $5,000 over 2 years.

On 1 November 2009 and 1 March 2010 applications are due for:

Publication Subvention Grant: preference for first-time authors and/or final reports of excavated or surveyed sites as yet unpublished, to support new book-length publications in the field of Classical Archaeology (defined as Greek, Roman, and Etruscan archaeology and art history), by nominations submitted from eligible non-profit publishers such as university or museum presses: typically $5,000, but may vary.

On 14 December 2009:

APA/AIA Minority Scholarship: for minority (African American, Hispanic-American, Asian-American, and Native American) undergraduates, to further preparation for graduate work in classics or classical archaeology; applications must be sent to the American Philological Association (<http://www.apaclassics.org/>); $3,000 maximum.

On 15 January 2010 applications are due for:

Anna C. and Oliver C. Colburn Fellowship: for citizens or permanent residents of the U.S or Canada who are pre-doctoral or recent recipients (within 5 years of the application deadline) of a PhD, to support studies at the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, Greece, for no more than a year; must apply concurrently to the ASCSA for Associate Membership or Student Association Membership; $11,000 (offered every two years).

On 15 March 2010 applications are due for:

Jane C. Waldbaum Archaeological Field School Scholarship: for junior and senior undergraduates, and 1st year graduate students who are currently enrolled in a U.S. or Canadian college or university and who have not previously participated in an archaeological excavation, to support participation in an archaeological excavation or survey project; $1,000. Further information is available at <http://www.archaeological.org/>, where applications can be submitted on-line.

On 30 November 2010 applications are due for the following fellowships from the Kress Foundation for the academic year 2010–2011:

Kress History of Art: Institutional Fellowships: for PhD candidates (U.S. citizen or matriculating at a U.S. university) working on a doctoral dissertation in architecture, art history, archaeology, and classical studies, with dissertation research focusing on European art from antiquity to the early 19th century. Candidates must be nominated by their art history department; for a two-year research appointment in association with a foreign institute, including the American Research Institute in Turkey (ARIT) in Ankara, the Nelson Glueck School of Biblical Archaeology or the W. F. Albright Institute of Archaeological Research in Jerusalem, and the Cyprus American Archaeological Research Institute (CAARI) in Nicosia; $22,500 per year.

Kress History of Art: Travel Fellowships: for PhD candidates (U.S. citizen or matriculating at a U.S. university) working on a doctoral dissertation in art history, with dissertation research focusing on European art before 1900. Candidates must be nominated by their art history department; $3500 to $10,000.

Further information is available at <http://www.kressfoundation.org/>.

On 4 December 2010 applications are due for the following fellowship from the American Research Institute in Turkey (ARIT) for the academic year 2010–2011:

W. D .E. Coulson and Toni M. Cross Aegean Exchange Program: for Turkish graduate students and senior scholars in any field of the humanities and social sciences from pre-historic to modern times to conduct research in Greece under the auspices of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens (ASCSA); $2500-$7,500.

On 31 December 2009 applications are due for:

Getty Research Exchange Fellowship for the Mediterranean Basin and the Middle East: for scholars who are Turkish citizens and who have already obtained a PhD or have professional experience in the study or preservation of cultural heritage to undertake a specific research project at a research center that belongs to the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC) in another country; up to $4,000 for no less than one month of research.

Further information is available at <http://ccat.sas.upenn.edu/ARIT/>.

On 14 December 2009 applications are due for the Institute for the Study of the Ancient World (ISAW) Visiting Research Scholars Program for 2010-2011 in the history, archaeology, and culture of the entire Old World from late prehistoric times to the eighth century AD, for scholars with the doctorate in hand by the beginning of their period of appointment at ISAW. Visiting scholars will be in residence at ISAW during the period for which they are appointed, will take part in the intellectual life of the community, and will have access to the Institute's own developing library, as well as to a wide range of other libraries at New York University, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and other institutions in New York City. Individual applications for residencies and proposals from small research teams (usually two persons based in different institutions) will be considered, as well as applications for years later than 2010-11 in cases where the applicant is interested in organizing an exhibition or a conference at ISAW.

ISAW is prepared to host both individuals coming with their own funding and those needing partial or full support for a semester or year. Applications should be sent to Professor Roger S. Bagnall, Director, Institute for the Study of the Ancient World, 15 East 84th St., New York, NY 10028; further information and application forms are available at <http://www.nyu.edu/isaw/vrs-program.htm> or from Academic Program Coordinator, Kathryn Lawson, at kathryn.lawson@nyu.edu.

On 15 January 2010 applications are due for the Margo Tytus Visiting Scholars Program in the fields of archaeology, history, or philology at the University of Cincinnati, Classics Department, tenable during the academic year from 1 October 2010 through 10 June 2011. Tytus Fellows will ordinarily be at least five years beyond receipt of the PhD, and will come to Cincinnati to pursue their own research. The minimum and maximum terms for Long Term Fellows are one academic quarter (two and a half months) to one academic year; Short Term Fellows will reside in Cincinnati for one to two months. Both categories of Tytus Fellows will receive a housing, a transportation allowance, and office space; a monthly stipend of $1000 is additionally provided for Long Term Fellows. Further information and application forms are available at <http://classics.uc.edu/index.php/tytus> or from program.coordinator@classics.uc.edu.

Calls for Papers

On 6 December 2009 abstracts are due for the interdisciplinary conference entitled Death, Disasters, Downturn: The Archaeology of Crises, to be held in Oxford on 24-25 April 2010, sponsored by Graduate Archaeology at Oxford and the School of Archaeology at the University of Oxford. Abstracts (500 words maximum) should be sent as attached files in PDF format to gao@arch.ox.ac.uk. Selected papers will be published in a volume in the GAO monograph series. Further information is available at <http://www.arch.ox.ac.uk/conferences/articles/gao-annual-conference.html>.

On 30 April 2010 proposals for sessions, papers, or round table are due for the 16th Annual Meeting of the European Association of Archaeologists (EAA AM 2010), to be held in The Hague, Netherlands from 30 August - 5 September 2010. On 30 June 2010 Early Fee Registration is due. Further information and registration forms are available at <http://www.e-a-a.org/> or <http://www.eaa2010.nl>.
