Sale of a slave (synchoreisis)

Addressee

To Diodotos, priest, archidikastes, and officer in charge of the chrematistai and the other courts,

Party 1

from Aphrodisios son of Didymos, grandson of Heron, from the Arsinoite nome, who is not present (in Alexandria) and in whose name Apollonides |⁵ son of Melas, a katoikos from the 6,475 (Greeks) of the Arsinoite nome, asks to complete the registration, and from Titus Salvius Symmachos and Titus Iulius Zenon.

Party 2

Agreement proper

Salvius Symmachos agrees that he has sold with the co-guarantee of Iulius Zenon to Aphrodisios acting through Apollonides a slave girl belonging to him, called Ligyriane, now |¹⁰ nicknamed Nike, from the Pontus area, said to be thirteen years old, (imported) from abroad, at the buyer's risk(?) and free from epilepsy and skin disease(?) and having been inspected in accordance with the decrees for the price of two thousand six hundred silver drachmas, which Salvius Symmachos (agrees that he) has received |¹⁵ from Apollonides both from hand to hand (in cash) and from the bank of Tiberius Iulius Sarapion through his assistants from the bank account of Aphrodisios, who, now that he has received the slave girl Ligyriane on the spot through Apollonides, can lord it over her from now on, just as they settled the case in the dispute.

Request for registration

We request (registration) |²⁰ handing in (this request) through Iulius Sarapion.

Date

|²¹ In the ... year of the Emperor Caesar Marcus Aurelius Commodus Antoninus Pius Felix Augustus Armeniacus Medicus Parthicus Sarmaticus Germanicus Maximus Britannicus, in the month of Choiak, (day) 2

Note of the clerk

Posidonios, scribe: it has been registered in the presence of Iulius Sarapion.
