

BGU 4.1156

P.Berol. 13194 recto

Scan: International Photographic Archive

Other texts on the same papyrus: unintelligible note above the text; Claytor-Van Minnen, ZPE 217 (2021) 158-164 on the verso

Loan contract (synchorexis)

Before January 26, 15 BC

(a) Addressee

^{|2} To Achaïos, who is in charge of the tribunal in the court,

(b1) Party 1

^{|3} from Gaius Iulius Philios,

(b2) Party 2

and from Nilos the son of ... ^{|4} and from his wife, Zoïs the daughter of ... ^{|5} and from Eirenaïos alias Dorotheos, the son of both of them, ^{|6} with as guardian of Zoïs her husband himself.

(c) Agreement about the receipt of a loan

Concerning the ^{|7} points at issue, Nilos and Zoïs and also ^{|8} Eirenaïos agree that they have received from Gaius Iulius Philios an interest-free loan, partly in ^{|9} cash (and not through a bank), partly through the money-changing bank of Kastor, ^{|10} of 180 Ptolemaic silver drachmas,

(d) Agreement about repayment of the loan

^{|11} which (loan) they also agree to pay back in six months starting from the first day of ^{|12} Mecheir of the present 15th year of Caesar (Augustus), by paying in an orderly fashion ^{|13} each day toward the aforementioned sum ^{|14} the one drachma due (each day), without skipping a single day, ^{|15} until Gaius Philios has been paid in full with the ^{|16} 180 silver drachmas, and they agree to do this ^{|17} without a trial or any dispute,

(e) Penalty clause

and if they skip any of the daily installments, they agree that they are liable to seizure immediately, without waiting for ^{|19} the time apportioned to them, and that they can be held under arrest until they pay ^{|20} the entire sum or whatever will be owed (at that time) along with half as much again ^{|21} and for the time that has gone beyond (the due date) the interest of two drachmas (per 100 drachmas per month) in accordance with the statute, ^{|22} while the right to execute (the claim) belongs to Gaius Iulius Philios from the three (debtors), who are each other's guarantors ^{|23} for payment, and from one and from whomever (of them) he chooses and from all of their belongings ^{|24} just as if by virtue of a legal decision, and until they pay (the debt), they agree that they are not permitted to ^{|25} adduce safeguards nor to take refuge to ... ^{|26} nor to a place of asylum nor to a decree of amnesty nor to a decree on professional exemptions ^{|27} nor to any other kind of protection at all, or whatever other kind they use, ^{|28} let that be without effect,

(f) Invalidation of a prior loan

and Gaius Philios agrees that the other agreement two ^{|29} of the aforementioned, Nilos and Zois, together with Sarapion the son of Sosos, have made with him ^{|30} through the same tribunal ^{|31} in Hathyr of the same 15th year for a loan ^{|32} of 120 drachmas is without effect ... ^{|33} ... ^{|34} he (Gaius) agrees not to proceed against the sum of 120 silver drachmas ^{|35} ... ^{|36} 180 silver drachmas.