Honorary decree of an association

August 21, 5 BC

(a) Prescript

^{|3} Year 25 of Caesar (Augustus), Mesore 28, at the meeting convened ^{|4} in the house of the archakolouthoi of the August Society ^{|5} of Caesar (Augustus), Imperator, son of a god, Zeus Eleutherios, ^{|6} whose convener is Primus, whose president is Iucundus, ^{|7} ...

(b) Considerans

^{|8} Considering that Pamphilos ... ^{|9} ... ^{|10} ... and in the matters concerning himself, and that he has not ^{|11} been perceived to have failed at all in that (previous office), and it is the same in ^{|12} the present (office), ... ^{|13-14} he has behaved in the whole time of his office zealously and ...,

(c) Decree proper

^{|15} (To good fortune!) we have decided unanimously to honor him, ^{|16} Pamphilos, for the rest of his life with a seat at the table in the ... and an extraordinary crown ^{|17} in order that the young people know how to ... ^{|18} and to know what kind of ... they become, ^{|19} while no one is allowed to argue against these decisions, ^{|20} or else we have decided that whoever tries to do so is unacceptable ^{|21} and should be fined 500 silver drachmas.
